York-Clark
Miss Lois Mae Clark and Hugh B. York were married in Suffolk, Va., Thursday, July 26, news of the wedding reaching friends here as a surprise over the week-end. The Rev. Mr. Jones, Methodist minister of Suffolk, performed the ceremony. The couple were attended by Leslie Gurganus.

Mrs. York is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark, of near Hamilton. She is originally from Enfield, but during the past two years she has been at home on the Sherrod plantation, where her father is in charge of the extensive farming operations there. She was graduated from the Oak City High School last spring. Mr. York is the son of Mrs. Kate York and the late Dr. Hugh B. York.

Following his schooling here he attended an electrical college in Washington City, returning here to engage in the radio business. The young couple are at home with the groom's mother on Simmons Avenue.

Gaylord-Ballard
Miss Dora Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Ballard, of Williamston, and William Vail Gaylord, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gaylord, of Roper, were married in Suffolk, Va., July 30. The groom's brother, Thomas Gaylord, and Miss Julia Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, also of Roper, were married that day, a double ceremony featuring the marriages.

Following a short stay in Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord will leave for New Jersey to make their home. Mrs. Gaylord attended the local schools and was popular among the younger set here.

Brown-Chesson
Miss Opal W. Chesson, formerly of Creswell but more recently of Norfolk, and Samuel Brown, a Williamston native, were married in South Mills the 20th of last month, the Rev. Mr. Duncan performing the ceremony. The only attendants were Mrs. Sally Gurganus, sister of the groom, and Paul Gillis. The ring ceremony was used. Miss Chesson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Chesson, of Roper. She graduated from Roper High School in the class of 1932 and is very popular among the younger set. Mr. Brown graduated from Williamston High School and has a position in Norfolk. The couple are at home at 117 Maple Avenue, Norfolk, Va.

Eastern Carolina Suitable For Raising Early Lambs
The climate in eastern and central Carolina is especially suitable for early lambs and the ram should be turned in with the ewes in early August for lambing in January. For February lambs the ram should be withheld from the flock until September. The severe climate in the mountain area prohibits these early lambs and breeding should not take place until late in October or November.

NOTICE OF SALE
By virtue of and pursuant to a decree of the Superior Court of Martin County, entered in the case of Atlantic Joint Stock Land Bank of Raleigh vs. Oscar S.
