FIELD DAY HELD BY CLUB WOMEN LAST THURSDAY

Over Hundred Register for Event in Bear Grass Church

By Miss Lora E. Sleeper
One hundred and three folks were registered this year at the Presbyterian Chapel in Bear Grass for the annual field day of all home demonstration clubs. The Bear Grass home demonstration club members were the hostesses, and all agreed most excellent ones, too. For several years now one county council meeting in each year has taken the form of a picnic and is held in some club community. This plan has helped to make friends of women and children in various sections and acquaint each community with the other.

The weather was very favorable this year, and all entered into the spirit of the day to help each other have a good and happy time a few hours together. As is the custom of the organization we opened our meeting with a devotional led by our own Rev. Z. T. Piephoff, of Williamston. In this short period the group was impressed by the simple lessons gleaned from neglected chapters in the Bible. We were sorry Rev. Mr. Piephoff could not be with us for the afternoon. The group joined in singing "Dixie and Swannee River" excellently. After the roll call by the clubs, called for by Mrs. Dale Tetterton secretary, Mrs. J. S. Ayers, council president, attended to the necessary business, and this over, the program for the afternoon followed. Angetown sent in a very interesting garden report by Mrs. C. H. Ange. Bear Grass, "Spinning Revived." This was a most interesting demonstration put on by Mrs. Jessie Ann Brown, spinning cotton into yarn. This demonstration was accompanied by a few solos given by Dennis Marion Bailey.

Owing to a sudden death in the Everetts community the women were unable to come together to practice for their part in the program. The Gold Point Club was represented, also Poplar Chapel, James, "Pleasant Memories of Short Course," a paper written by Mrs. Mittie Fagan, of the Dardens community, was read by Mrs. J. E. Smithwick, of Jamesville.

An old-fashioned quartet was featured by the Macedonia women, and the garments ranged in age from 15-30 years, a real curiosity to the modern woman.

Parnicle was represented with a very interesting and impressive talk on the book of Ruth.

Poplar Point, represented by Mrs. Nora Hopkins on the program, gave an interesting report on what the six poultry demonstrators had done thus far and what poultry meetings at Raleigh had meant to her.

Williams Chapel, represented on the program by Miss Hattie Everett, gave a timely nutrition report, "How To Keep Fit."

This year for the first time representative 4-H club girls were on the program. Miss Mary Wildman gave a very enjoyable account of her trip to the national encampment in Washington, D. C.

"What the State Short Course Means to a Club Girl," was given by Evelyn Everett, of the Gold Point community. Miss Everett gave an interesting account of her trip to Raleigh this year and expressed the desire to have all the parents see to it that all club girls had a chance to go to Raleigh.

We were glad to have our editor, Mr. W. C. Manning, with us and appear on the program to add interest to the day. Mr. Manning urged those assembled to be the right kind of folks and to work together to help serve each other and offered his assistance to the group to further the fine

Series Batting Averages

Below are presented the Martin's batting averages for the seven games of the Albemarle League post-season championship series. The team mark for the series is decidedly better than it was for the season, and it was still good enough to win. The pitchers seem to be Williamston's best hitters. Gaddy and Gardner are way out in front of the regular team members, though Chappell and Brown, borrowed for the last game on account of injuries, ran them a close race for top honors. Jim Uzzle came to life and led the regular members of the squad, followed by Gaylord and Herring, in order named. Brake fell down from over .300 to .185, but he still leads in runs batted in and is third in total bases. Here are the figures:

Special Service at Baptist Church Sunday Morning

A "Going Away to College" service will be held at the Memorial Baptist church next Sunday morning in honor of the many young people in the community who will be off for the various schools within a short time. This service is planned as a recognition for these young people as they go away.

All such young people and their families are invited to this service who are not engaged in other religious services at the same hour.

Burglar Enters Local Home Early Yesterday Morning

A negro whose identity could not be definitely established, entered the home of Mrs. Daisy Purvis on Main Street here early yesterday morning. Hearing a noise about 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Purvis thought it was her son returning from a trip to Durham. She turned on the light and saw the man standing in the hall near her door. Before she could get a pistol or summon aid the man fled.

efforts being made by the women. A most enjoyable supper was served on the lawn from the small classroom. All agreed they had had a very fine day and looked forward to the next field day, which will be held in the Holly Springs Community.

Which Course Will Your Wife Follow?

"A sad sight," says the social worker, "is that of children coming home from school, and sitting on the doorstep, waiting for the widowed mother, who is at work, to get home and let them in."

AFTER all the debts, the funeral expenses and the incidentals have been paid and the life insurance money and other assets have disappeared, three courses are open to a mother:

1. She may place her children in an orphan's home and in the desolation of bereaved motherhood, work to keep soul and body together.
2. She may strive to keep the children at home and leave their lives to chance while she works away from home ten, twelve, fourteen hours a day.
3. She may stay at home with them and starve.

Will your wife be forced to follow one of the three courses? The Monthly Income Departments of the Life Insurance companies have helped thousands of men solve the problem.

BRING YOUR TOBACCO TO ROBERSONVILLE

Where many thousand pounds of tobacco have been sold this season at prices that have pleased everybody. There were over 200,000 pounds of tobacco on the market today (Tuesday, September 4th). In spite of the large amount of tips all three warehouses made good averages. One Robersonville farmer sold on the Robersonville market a lot of seven piles of tobacco that averaged over 50 cents. We have an excellent set of buyers eager to please with high prices and three big warehouses large enough to accommodate this territory in a satisfactory way. Better grades of tobacco are selling on the Robersonville market as high as 65 cents a pound. If you are not a patron of the Robersonville market we urge and insist that you begin hauling your tobacco to this market. The Robersonville market is the largest market in the country with one set of buyers. Those who sell here regularly say it is the strongest and best tobacco market in every respect in Eastern Carolina. Large sales are expected throughout this and next week, so come early to avoid the congestion.
