An Annual Problem Near Again

The big problem of what to do with our children during the summer months is just about on us again. There are literally thousands of things to absorb their time and attention, and what they do will reflect itself for good or for bad in their later life. Most of them need to learn some of the essential things in life.

There was a time when children learned many of the best lessons in life during their vacation. They were taught to be helpful and useful around the home, to learn just what a home is, and what it takes to maintain it. The art of housekeeping was learned by the girls and much knowledge of farming, stock-raising, and many other useful things were picked up by the boys.

Now things seem to be different, and in too many cases the time is used by boys and girls to run their parents to death in trying to keep up with this speedy age of world mad pleasure, and it seems that everything and everybody has joined in the rush for frivolous pleasure to the exclusion of almost everything else—and in the whirl of things it is hard to even guess what the end will bring. One thing we do know is that when the very best men in the various activities of today are checked up, most of them are those who made the best use of their vacations. Generally those who ran wild during their vacations are still traveling down the same old crooked road.

May we be able to save our children for a better purpose than to live in idleness and waste.

Justice by Compromise

On Good Friday, a New York woman, Mrs. Lewis Titterton, was brutally murdered. The police had nothing to work on except a shred of cord left at the scene of the crime. Magnificent work on their part, however, built a case upon this tiny fragment of evidence. They found their man and he confessed.

This case throws into vivid contrast the frequently excellent work of the police with the generally incompetent work of prosecutors and criminal courts. The defendant, Fiorenza, had a long police record. Three years ago he was arrested for stealing an automobile, which is grand larceny, and was permitted to plead guilty to petty larceny. The judge suspended sentence. Five months later he was again arrested, this time for burglary, was again permitted to plead guilty to lesser offense and served a term in prison. In July, 1934; he was again arrested for stealing an automobile and was again permitted to plead to petty larceny.

Three times, then, this man was caught by the police and three times the prosecution whittled away the case. Each time it followed the tradition of lazy and incompetent prosecutors everywhere. It saved itself the hard work of securing a conviction for the real offense by permitting the prisoner to plead guilty to a lesser offense.

This habit of prosecutors, this "bargaining" for pleas to a lesser offense, is the most serious problem connected with the administration of criminal justice in this country today.

The result is more and more leniency, more and more flouting of the law by professional criminals. The leniency and incompetence of prosecutors discourage police and destroy their morale. Can the police be expected to do their best when they see, every day, that no matter how diligently they work to apprehend criminals, their work is frittered away by the prosecution?—Today Magazine.

Slavery, Indeed

Italy is boasting over her conquest of Ethiopia and claiming that territory as her own. It sounds very much like a thief who has robbed a sheepfold and boasts of his feat when officers call.

Few events in all history are more dastardly than the conquest of Ethiopia by the Italian armed forces. They have literally run a nation of people from their homes and stolen their possessions. At any rate, a nation of people was shot up, many killed, their homes taken and now the remainder are in the hands and subjects of the nation which has thus treated them. The Ethiopians do not yet know the degree of slavery in which they are to live, but one thing they do know and that is their freedom and rights are all gone and they must move when a taskmaster speaks "come" or "go." Cruel slavery, indeed.

Fire Waste Rising

Sampson Independent.

The national fire loss, after several years in which it showed a slow but encouraging steady decline, is rising. The upward trend has been maintained during a number of recent months.

The blame for this can be laid to one thing: Human carelessness—a term which includes a multitude of sins.

Few of us think about fire. Few of us take the trouble to learn the simple lessons that would enable us to eliminate fire hazards on our property—hazards that, in nine cases, out of ten, could be done away with at little or no expense. Few of us realize that the entire community must help pay for every fire that occurs—in higher taxes and insurance rates, in lost business, in destroyed opportunities for industries and individuals, in business stagnation.

Some of the greatest fires have started from seemingly harmless origins. One greasy rag in the corner of your garage could become the focal point for a blaze that would destroy a hundred homes. So could old, amateurishly repaired electric wiring. So could the cigarette you threw away without looking to see where it fell. So could the leaky flue, which you're going to have repaired on some distant tomorrow that may never come.

The overwhelming majority of fires result from such obvious hazards as these. They cost us hundreds of millions of dollars a year, and cause an indirect loss several times as great. Infinitely more important, they destroy thousands of lives. You and your neighbors can take the steps that will make your community safe—that will lower fire loss 75 per cent. Is it worth the small effort required?

A Million Miles WITHOUT AN ACCIDENT ON Firestone HIGH SPEED TIRES

- ★ WILL STOP A CAR UP TO 25% QUICKER!
- ★ GIVES GREATER BLOWOUT PROTECTION!
- ★ GIVES 25% LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE!

BUY ON PROOF OF PERFORMANCE

A MILLION miles on Firestone Tires without an accident. That is the record of Ab Jenkins, famous driver, who has driven on all kinds of roads and in all kinds of traffic in every state in the union. What a tribute to safe, dependable, tire equipment! Make this proof of performance your guide in choosing new tires to protect yourself and your family.

There are three important facts you should know about the tires you buy—

1. THE FACTS ON TRACTION and NON-SKID SAFETY

A leading university in 2,350 tests has found that the new, scientifically designed tread on the Firestone High Speed Tire stops a car up to 25% quicker.

2. THE FACTS ON BLOWOUT PROTECTION

Ab Jenkins used Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires when he drove his 5,000-pound car over the hot salt beds at Bonneville, Utah, in the record-breaking time of 127 miles per hour, covering 3,000 miles in 23½ hours without a blowout or tire trouble of any kind.

3. THE FACTS ON ECONOMY and NON-SKID MILEAGE

The largest transportation companies in the country, such as Greyhound, to whom safety and tire economy mean business efficiency, use Firestone Tires from Coast to Coast and from Canada to the Gulf. And our own test fleet records prove that the new Firestone High Speed Tire for 1936 gives you up to 25% longer non-skid mileage.

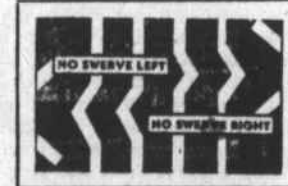

The Firestone High Speed Tire for 1936 proves by performance its superiority in all of these three qualifications. Make this proof of performance your yardstick of safety and value. Decide today to equip your car with new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1936—the safest driving equipment money can buy.

Gum-Dipping not only strengthens the cords but prevents heat inside the cords, where it insulates the tiny fibers against friction and protects Firestone High Speed Tires from blowouts.

This heavy, broad, traction and non-skid tread is held to the cord body of the tire with Two Extra Layers of Gum-Dipped Cords, a patented construction, making the cord body and tread an inseparable unit.

The angles in the scientifically designed Firestone High Speed tread are so placed as to stop a car quicker and without swerve. Its super-traction and non-skid efficiency have also been proved in the famous Pike's Peak Race where for eight consecutive years it has been used on the winning cars.
