THANKS!

Being unable to see and thank everyone personally, Skipper and Mrs. Charlie Wry would like to say that they appreciate very much the courtesies and beautiful gifts presented them on their recent wedding at the local baseball park.

Wry recently took charge of the Williamston Martins, and then, to cap the climax, he "took charge" of a wife on Tuesday afternoon.

Williamston split a doubleheader here Tuesday afternoon with Ayden, losing the opener, 5-4, and taking a 14-7 victory in the finale. As an added touch, Skipper Charlie Wry became married to Miss Jessie Munger of Seattle, Wash., between the two contests. Mayor J. L. Hassell officiated while Ray Goodson was Wry's best man, Pete Fowden giving the bride away.

In the opening game, two of the Martins' markers came as the result of home runs, one by George Bowen in the third, and the other by Ace Villepique in the seventh. Combining three singles and a stolen base, the locals scored a run in the second, while Little Man Earp tripled, coming home on a fly by Pee-wee Shipway to score in the eighth.

Ace Villepique, with a home run and single, led the Martins at bat. He was followed by Earp with two for four.

Red Swain pitched for the Martins and received credit for the loss. He fanned seven batters.

Hardison started the second game on the mound for Williamston but was relieved in the fourth by Charlie Wry, who went on to pitch five hit ball and win his first game since Saturday, June 11, when he won from Tarboro 5-2.

Williamston scored seven runs in the second inning on five hits, three walks, three errors, and a stolen base. Three more came in the fourth when Eddie Ignasiak homered after Wade had singled and Bowen walked.

In the fifth, Steve Lakatos and Wry walked, coming home on a four-base blow by Larry Wade, playing right field. Eddie Ignasiak finished the scoring in the sixth with his second home run of the game.

Larry Wade, playing right field, led at bat, getting a home run and two singles for four trips to the plate. The Great Ignasiak followed with a pair of homers for three times at bat. Both knocked in four runs.

Great Help to Mound Staff
 On Wednesday afternoon, First Baseman Eddie Ignasiak went to the mound for the Martins, due to the lack of pitchers, but he gave up after Ayden had knocked his offerings all over the lot for six runs in the first inning. Bowen, third base-baller, was hit by a pitch and fanned. Wade, pitcher, fanned three batters.

Four Games And A Wedding During Last Three Days

Charlie Wry Is Doing Good Job Considering the Conditions

In spite of the fact that the Williamston Martins' pitching staff has weakened a great deal during the past week, the club is still giving local fans plenty to talk about.

Breazy Beard, who accepted a position as coach at Concord, had to leave this week to go there and accept himself with the coming work. Bill Averette, who, although he pitched a great game yesterday afternoon and won, has a bad muscle in his back which has been causing him much pain.

Yet, during the past three days, fans have witnessed four good ball games, the Martins winning two, and a legal wedding staged at home plate in which the new manager, blonde Charlie Wry, was united to pretty Miss Jessie Munger, of Seattle, Wash.

Considering the great amount of difficulties under which Manager Wry has had to work since he took over the Martins, he has done a noble job, and should be complimented on his great fight to keep the Martins plugging.

THE BUDGET BALANCES

The Story of Bill's Surprise at a Bill

Put down that novel, Betty—and get your paper and pencil. Have you forgotten this is the first of the month?

Day of reckoning, eh? Okay, Bill... but before we go into this budget-huddle...

No hedging, now—figures don't lie, you know.

I just want to ask you first if you haven't enjoyed your meals a lot more since we've had our electric range.

Certainly. Best food I ever ate. But...

And I've enjoyed cooking in a clean, cool kitchen. And we've hardly missed the easy monthly payment.

Right as rain. That electric range is a wonder. But now—let's take a look at the electric bill.

Look—and laugh, Mr. Budget-Balancer.

Well, for Pete's sake. I was prepared to be forgiving if it was twice this much.

Now you know I was right when I said electric cooking is economical.
