BLOUNT-CARSON
The Methodist church of Jamesville was a scene of loveliness last Friday when Miss Edna Gray Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ola Gray Carson, became the bride of Thomas James Blount, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Cecil Blount, in a formal ceremony at 5:30 in the afternoon. The Rev. Gilbert Davis, cousin of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with pines, ferns, and early spring flowers. The altar accented with baskets of floral designs and floor candelabra holding cathedral candles, made a lovely setting for the bridal party.

Prior to the ceremony, the vested choir, arranged in two settings, sang "The Evening Song". Mrs. Charles Davenport sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," assisted by Mrs. Andrew Holliday at the organ. "I Love You Truly" was played during the ceremony. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the professional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bridal party entered in the flowing order. The ushers were: Messrs. Herbert Sexton, Titus Martin, James Smithwick, Edwin Horace Carson, brother of the bride; Oscar Davenport and Watson Walters; the bridesmaids, Mesdames Edgar Brown, Oscar Davenport, Herbert Sexton, Camille Fleming Turner, Misses Virginia Gibson, Rachel Godwin, Louise Ward, Mildred Hagan. Her dresses were of the pastel shades with white tulle capes and tulle hats, each carried an arm basket of garden flowers.

Miss Rachel Carson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing an aquamarine gown with cape and hat similar to those of bridesmaids. She carried a nosegay of old-fashioned garden flowers.

Little Miss Barbara Spencer was the flower girl. She was dressed in white organdy and carried a basket of mixed spring flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of white starched chiffon with pearl clips at the neck. A train extended from her cape which was wreathed in orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book, showered with fern and lilies of the valley, which was used by the great-grandmother of the groom at her wedding.

The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his brother, Phillip Cecil Blount, who acted as best man.

Following the ceremony, a cake cutting was held for the bridal party and both families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Cecil Blount. Miss Louise Ward was hostess.

Later in the evening the young couple left for a short wedding trip.

DARDENS
There will be regular preaching services at Corinth Sunday.

Everyone is invited to attend Sunday school Sunday morning at ten o'clock. We now have all the window panes repaired.

Miss Virginia Everett spent last week-end in Plymouth.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY
Mrs. A. D. Griffin, Jr., was honored at a delightful surprise birthday party by Mr. Griffin at their home in Griffins Township last Monday evening. Returning home from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Griffin found everything in readiness for the special event.

Ice cream and cake were served, and a song program was greatly enjoyed.

Special guests included ten of Mrs. Griffin's brothers and sisters, Mrs. M. D. Harrison, Mrs. Dave Griffin, Mrs. W. J. Griffin and Messrs. Tom, Lewis, State, Arnold, Ben, George and Archie Roberson, all of Griffins Township. An eighth brother, Simon, was unable to be present for the delightful event.

Returns From Visit To South America

Mr. E. P. Cunningham returned this week from South America where he has been for the past several weeks contacting tobacco interests of Argentina and various other South American countries.

Mr. Cunningham said he would ask for comment on both Hitler and Mussolini and they were generally referred to as crazy by the Argentinians. However, he said both Germany and Italy had friends among government officials due to trade agreements and that he was of the opinion that the influence of the dictators was gaining ground in some of the South American countries.

Lions Clubs Hold Zone Meeting Here Yesterday

Representatives of the Washington, Plymouth, Edenton, Belhaven, Greenville and Williamston Lions clubs held a zone meeting here yesterday afternoon. The presidents and secretaries of the various clubs discussed a business calendar.

In the absence of the zone president, N. A. Taylor, of Plymouth, H. O. Peel, president of the local club, presided over the meeting.

Former Martin Youth On College Honor List

Edward A. Council, Jr., young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Council, of Morehead City, was one of the few seniors in Lees-McRae College to have his name appear on the college honor roll for the second quarter recently ended. Young Council, a senior in the college, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Matthews, of Hamilton. He is secretary of Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity of Lees-McRae.

Local Boy Member Of Mars Hill Business Club

Carlyle Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hall, of Williamston, who is a freshman at Mars Hill College this year, has recently been invited and has joined the business club of Mars Hill College. Making the honor roll for the first semester with an average of above ninety on all his subjects, he was asked to join this scholastic honor club.

There were thirty-nine students eligible for the club, but only 12 could be admitted as the membership cannot be over twenty, and the club already had eight members enrolled from last year.
