Makes Neat Profit From Small Cherry Orchard
Adler Byrd, of Burnsville, in Yancey County, reports that he sold $50 worth of cherries from a small orchard of 12 trees last season. This is in addition to cherries consumed at home. The reason for this excellent return is due to the fact that the trees are kept pruned and cared for as they should. Other trees in the community have died from the lack of attention.

Things To Watch For In The Future

More movie romances portraying the lives of early American bandits following the successful reception of Jesse James and the Oklahoma Kid...

An automatic electric teakettle which has a device for ejecting the socket plug when water in the kettle runs low... Reviving popularity of croquet; modern equipment includes mallets with steel shafts, and a rubber face on one side so that the balls don't become nicked; also a wicket with a candle attacked for night games... New musical instrument known as a Tonette and resembling the ocarina which makers claim takes only an hour to learn to play... A safety device for cars with hydraulic brakes, it seals off either front or rear lines if a leak occurs so that the other line will continue to function; lights on the dashboard indicate when both lines are working properly.
