Mr. Hollander Speaks

Sidney Hollander, successful Baltimore businessman who has no political aspirations, asks no special consideration and who is not a member of any union or liberty league, asked a pertinent question or two during the course of an address before the National Conference of Social Work in Buffalo recently. Commenting on the relief situation, the businessman said:

"Will we go on shouting down efforts to find work for the workless because taxes are high? Will we still complain that the burden of relief is too great? Are we forgetting that the heaviest burden of relief is borne by those who are on relief?"

"Last year there were about 2,000,000 children born in this country, and of that number, about 1,000,000, 55 per cent, came to families on relief, or in the very low income groups.

"Let us assume that this will happen again this year and next, and throughout the years to come.

"In just one decade there will be 11,000,000 children growing up in homes that are but a travesty on the word—homes in which most of the opportunities that should be the right of every child will be wanting.

"These children may be dependent on us now, but in a generation we may be dependent on them—for they will be the majority. They will fill the offices that govern us and make the laws that control us.

"What kind of America will we leave if we fail to provide these children with a measure of the satisfaction, the security that all children should have?"

"Talk with those who vainly seek work, who suffer the daily humiliation of empty handedness, who eat the bitter bread of failure—talk to them, there are 10,000,000 of them, of the meaning of democracy, of the boon of liberty and equality. We've got to make liberty mean to every man what it means to us, or it won't mean much to us very long.

"Let us not forget what happened in other lands where millions were hungry and without hope. We can't risk that here.

"Once this nation went forth to make a world safe for democracy. There is a danger closer at hand now.

"Democracy has no appeal for discouraged, rebellious youth—for workless and hungry men. If we continue to deny Americans food to sustain them, clothing to cover them, homes to shelter them, we are implanting resentment which will not quickly be forgotten.

"America must have a program of welfare that faces realities, not one that ignores them; a program that recognizes the fact that we can and must provide work for those who can labor and support for those who cannot; that people must eat whether we list them as 'employables' or 'unemployables'; that they must have clothes, whether they are married or single; that they must have a place of shelter, whether they are black or white; that they are eligible for sickness and death even though they may be ineligible for relief.

"Machines can be replaced, plants can be rebuilt, acres can be replanted, but the deterioration of wasted men is a progressive liability. They cannot be charged off to obsolescence or sold for scrap.

"Only as we protect them, only as we give them security, do we insure protection and security for ourselves. Until their needs are met, America's budget will never balance.

"There are flaws in the program—plenty of them—but what branch of our government is free from flaws? There's waste, too. It's incapable in any plan that has to deal with millions of human beings, no more ethical than the rest of us.

"But there is waste in the army too; there is waste in the navy, Heaven knows there is waste in the Congress and in the legislatures. But are we suggesting that soldiers and sailors be thrown out on their ears, or that Congress or the legislatures be abolished?"

How About the Telephone Monopoly?

Reports from Washington state that the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission is recommending that a subcommittee be directed to conduct a "thorough and complete" investigation of the telegraph industry.

Possibly the telegraph industry should be investigated, but in the opinion of the hundreds of thousands of telephone users, the telephone monopoly should get a "thorough and complete" investigation first.

The telephone owners have gone so far to dominate the industry that they no longer try to cover up their interlocking scheme. They are milking the public to the last drop and even in this little town the people know that service is secondary to the company's profit sheet.

Searching For Christianity

Persecuted and driven from their homes in Germany, 907 refugees started out a few weeks ago in search of Christianity. At their first stop, Cuba, they were turned away, the iron hand of the law there forgetting all about the persecution the people of Cuba experienced just a few years ago. Sad to relate, the refugees did not find Christianity on American shores and they started drifting.

World conditions present a baffling problem today, a problem that the visits of royalty or the diplomacy of all the diplomats will solve. Surely, at some time in the distant future mankind will apply the principles of Christianity to his problems and find them solved.

Colonel Bain Takes Command!

Brewers and Distributors Inaugurate North Carolina "Clean-Up or Close-Up" Campaign. State and Local Enforcement Heads Endorse Plan.

IN NORTH CAROLINA, as in many other states, a few retail beer outlets which flout the law, often bring discredit upon the entire business.

Brewers and distributors are convinced that this business can and should always be conducted properly and in full conformity with the law, and they are determined that this shall be the case in North Carolina.

Consequently, we, the undersigned, recently formed the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee which, acting in close cooperation with state and local enforcement bodies, has launched a vigorous cooperative campaign to rid the state of those few beer outlets which persist in disregarding both the law and the public.

In plain words, we refuse any longer to tolerate outlets which use their beer licenses as a "cover-up" for flagrant bootlegging operations; which sell to minors or otherwise violate the law and their license privileges. With the brewers, our Committee includes wholesalers who distribute approximately ninety per cent of the beer sold in North Carolina. And we also have the wholehearted support of the large majority of our respectable and law-abiding retailers.

Furthermore, duly constituted enforcement officials have approved our objectives and promised their help. And ACTION is certain now that Attorney General McMullan has declared it is the duty of municipal and county boards, on request for revocation of malt beverage licenses, to hold hearings.

Colonel Edgar H. Bain, of Goldsboro, N. C., has been appointed by the Committee to direct its activities.

"Good Conduct" Committees of local beer distributors, each headed by a chairman, have been set up in ten districts of the state for close cooperation with law enforcement officers, and with our own Executive Committee, in eradicating objectionable places of business.

Established on a permanent basis, our Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee seeks to protect the legitimate beer business in North Carolina from the depredations of a small and irresponsible minority, and to perform a worthwhile service to the public. The Committee is sponsored by the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, a national organization of brewers.

The Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee is convinced that its work is in the public interest. Therefore, we respectfully solicit your cooperation with our efforts.

COL. EDGAR H. BAIN State Director

Colonel Bain recently resigned from the State Senate to take over the directorship of our Committee. He is a World War veteran, decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross and the Silver Star. An official of the U. S. Army Reserve Officers Corps, he is well-known throughout the State as a militant crusader for law enforcement.
