Legion Auxiliary In Regular Meet

On July 1, at 3:30 o'clock the American Legion Auxiliary met with Mesdames C. L. Wilson, W. M. Wynn and V. A. Ward at the home of Mrs. Ward in Robersonville. Fourteen members were present for this meeting.

The meeting was opened with the singing of America, accompanied by Miss Eva I. Peel at the piano. The chaplain read the first Psalm and at the end of the prayer, everyone stood thirty seconds in silence in memory of the World War dead. The preamble was repeated in unison.

The secretary read the minutes of May and June and these were approved as read.

Mrs. W. E. Old, Williamston P. T. A. treasurer, thanked the auxiliary through Mrs. Goodman for money donated each school month for underprivileged children.

The highlight of the meeting came when trophy and award chairman, Mrs. J. H. Ayers, presented a beautiful naval print plate offered to any unit president by Mrs. H. L. Swain, first area chairman, and won by Mrs. J. R. Winslow for the most outstanding child welfare work in the fourth district. Mrs. Winslow graciously thanked Mrs. Swain and the auxiliary for cooperation given, making it possible for her to win this beautiful trophy.

The following made reports on recent convention held in Raleigh: Mrs. Swain on joint memorial service held in Memorial auditorium; Mrs. John A. Ward on auxiliary memorial service held in Ambassador theatre; Mrs. W. H. Gray on program of Tuesday's meeting when Mrs. Weaver Mann, of Newton, was elected state president. Mesdames Beach, Winslow and Wynn also made reports, all stating they thoroughly enjoyed attending.

This concluded our business and the meeting was turned over to the hostesses. Delicious punch, sandwiches and wafers were served.

The next meeting will be held the first Saturday in August with Mesdames Beach, Ayers and Boykin.
