Friends Put Tydings In Presidential Race

Senator Millard E. Tydings, of Maryland, has his hat in the ring for he Democratic presidential nomiof 1940. The bat settled into the ring last Friday. The senator didn't throw-it, but he offered no resistince when Baltimore's Calvert Club pulled it from his head and tossed into the ring.
The Calvert Club announced that ampaign stickers have already been printed, that it was supporting him for president, and that both have the full approval of Senator Tydings.

The Maryland Senator last year survived President Roosevelt's "purge" by defeating the New Deal candidate, Rep. David J. Lewis, by 65,000 votes.
