HONORED AT CAKE-CUTTING

On Friday evening following the rehearsal for the Lassiter-Whitley wedding, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Gentry Lassiter, and sister, Miss Frances Lassiter, entertained at their home in Candor honoring members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests. The guests were greeted by the hostesses and the bride and groom-elect.

In compliment to Mrs. James Milton Earley, who was soloist for the occasion, Miss Lassiter wore the blue net dress that she used in Mrs. Earley's wedding in June as a bridesmaid. Her accessories were of pink and in her hair she wore a cluster of pink valley lilies. Mrs. Lassiter received in a formal gown of navy blue crepe. Miss Frances Lassiter wore a flowered dress with yellow background, trimmed with orchid taffeta.

The house was attractively decorated with fall flowers. In the dining room the color scheme of green and white was carried out. Mrs. W. Lee Smith and Miss Maxine Clark directed the guests to the dining room. In the center of the lace-covered table was the wedding cake topped by the miniature bride and groom. Green tapers burned on either side of the cake. The top tier was removed and presented to the bride-elect to be eaten by the bride and groom on their first anniversary. Excitement prevailed as each guest cut for the traditional favors after the bride had cut the first slice which she divided with the groom. Ice cream in the moulds of wedding rings and wedding slippers was served by Misses Nancy Wade Burkhead, Cletus Lassiter, Madge Burkhead and Mary Lee Burkhead. Misses Louise Clark and Elizabeth Gurley presided at the punch bowl. Miss Margaret Whitley, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Glen Bruton directed the guests to the gift room where Miss Kathleen Gilleland was in charge of the bride's book. Miss Eleanor Bruton, pianist, and Miss Lucille Currie, soloist, rendered music for the occasion. Others assisting in the house were Miss Mary Water, Mesdames Frank Long, John Wyatt and Harold Deaton, Misses Annie Mae Davis and Ruby Malone.

The out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Whitley, Margaret Whitley, Lenna Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. John Ezelle, of Burlington; Frances Flaherty, Margaret Hendrix, Lena Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, Aberdeen; Mildred Marshall, Wilson; Elizabeth Gurley, Fremont; Louise Fashall, Farmville; Kathleen Gilleland, Aulander; Annie Mae Davis, Rocky Mount; Ruby Malone, Williamston; Mary Waters, Goldsboro; Cletus Lassiter, Nancy Wade Burkhead, Greensboro; Eleanor Bruton, Angier; Maxine Clark, Robersonville; Mrs. W. Lee Smith, Raleigh; Elizabeth Steed, Garner; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lassiter, Richmond; Rev. and Mrs. Roy Whitley, Yanceyville; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Whitley, Huntersville; Bill Whitley, Washington, D. C.; Ralph Lassiter, Boone; Mrs. James Milton Earley, Fredericksburg, Va.; Rev. and Mrs. Arnold Pate, Jonesboro; Rev. Robert Forbis, Rocky Mount; Rev. J. Norton Dendy, Tarboro; Rev. Leslie Thompson, Troy; Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Ashmore, Biscoe; and Hugh Thornburg, Raleigh, and Ralph Mobley, of Williamston.

WHITLEY-LASSITER

In the Candor Methodist church on Saturday, Sept. 16, at 5:30 in the afternoon, Miss Inza Lassiter became the bride of Rev. John Currie Whitley, of La Grange and Burlington. The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, long leaf pine and seven-branched candelabra, in which burned cathedral tapers.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. T. N. Frye, of Candor, pianist, played "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," from Wagner's "Tannhauser"; and "The Rosary" by Neve, Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, of Aberdeen, sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "All for You" Mrs. James Milton Earley, of Fredericksburg, Va., who before her marriage in June was Miss Jessie Faye Greene, of Aulander, sang "Because," d'Hardelet. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as professional during the vows. Leiberstrum was softly played.

The bride's only sister, Miss Frances Lassiter, was maid of honor. She wore a royal blue velvet dress with sweetheart neckline caught with rhinestone clips, a gift from the bride. She wore a velvet corded band on her head from which fell a shoulder veil of illusion the same color as her dress. Her nosegay was of tulle and roses.

Little Nancy Sue Bruton, cousin of the bride and daughter of the Glen Brutons, of Candor, was flower girl. Her long dress was of sunset-pink taffeta. She carried a basket made of matching material and filled with pink roses and feverfew. She wore a band of pink rosebuds in her hair.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Ralph Lassiter, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines. The leg-of-mutton sleeves which came to a point over the hands were emphasized by tiny covered buttons. The sweetheart neckline caught with satin bows was especially becoming with the knife-plaits forming a stand-up collar in the back. The full skirt fell into a short circular train. Her finger tip veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and valley lilies centered with an orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

The vows were repeated and following the impressive ring pledge of the groom, the bride responded with the beautiful words of Ruth beginning "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee." The song, "O Perfect Love" was then sung as a duet by Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Earley. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as the recessional.

Rev. Whitley had as his best man, his brother, William Whitley, of Washington, D. C. The usher-groomsmen were Tom Whitley, of Huntersville, another brother, Reverend Arnold Pate, Jonesboro; J. Norton Dendy, Tarboro, and Robert L. Forbis, Rocky Mount.

Rev. H. R. Ashmore, pastor of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. Roy Whitley, of Yanceyville, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a formal gown of drama orchid. Her corsage was gardenias tied with orchid and silver.

For travel the bride changed to a fox-trimmed costume suit of mulberry with which she used black and wine accessories. She lifted the orchid from her bouquet as her corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitley are spending their honeymoon in Blue Mountain Lake, New York. They expect to visit Niagara Falls and other interesting points in Canada. After the first of October they will be at home in LaGrange.

Mrs. Whitley is the daughter of Mrs. Gentry Thomas Lassiter, of Candor, the former Miss Isa Burkhead, of Farmer, N. C. She attended Woman's College, Greensboro, and the University of North Carolina. For the past two years she has taught in Aberdeen. She is a former member of the Bear Grass school faculty.

Mr. Whitley is the son of J. R. and the late Amelia White Whitley, of Burlington, and was graduated from Davidson College and received his degree in Theology from Union Seminary, Richmond, Va. He was a member of the Davidson Glee club and the Seminary quarter. He also played on the varsity baseball team at Davidson and has played professional ball. He is now pastor of the Presbyterian churches in La Grange and Jason and is chairman of the Young People's League of Albemarle Presbytery. Before going to La Grange, he was located in Bear Grass as assistant to Rev. Z. T. Piephoff.

CHURCH NEWS

CHRISTIAN

Bible school, 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject: "The Growth of Sin and Its Consequences." Young people's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Mrs. John L. Goff, advisor. Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "New Testament Conversions—The Samaritans." Mid-week service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "On Meeting Opposition."

Church board meets Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Promotion day will be observed throughout the Bible school Sunday morning. The election of the general officers of the school and the appointment of teachers and departmental superintendents will be held. The Workers' Council requests the members of the school to bring to Bible school with them the handbook that has been used for the past quarter. Also that each member invite someone to be his or her guest at Bible school and church on both Promotion Day and Rally Day which will be the Sunday following. The school aims to have 200 in attendance on Rally Day.

The young people's meetings that have been suspended for the summer months will be resumed Sunday evening at 6:30 with Mrs. John L. Goff acting as advisor to the group. It is very important that this meeting get underway and it is hoped that a full attendance will be had.

METHODIST

Church school, 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Theme: "An Ageless Message." Young people meet, 6:45 p. m. Evening worship, 7:30 p. m.

Tonight a cast of twelve people will give a dramatic worship service which interprets the theme: "Love Never Filleth."

October is designated "Church Interest Month" by our congregation. Its aim is to secure every member in public worship and every member participating in the obligations of the church. If you come to public worship you will become interested and if you become interested your church life will be a joyous thing with you. Break the unworthy habit of neglecting your church. Forsake the shameful attitude of leaving all of the work to the other fellow.

Regular choir practice every Wednesday night, 7:30 p. m.
