County Young Man Makes Good In Banking World

Elmer D. Lilley, a native of this county, is making a name for himself in the banking field at Raleigh. The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lilley, the young man was recently elected to a position of trust by a Raleigh bank, the News and Observer carrying the following story in connection with his promotion: The board of directors of First Citizens Bank and Trust Company have elected E. D. Lilley assistant trust officer. It was announced yesterday by Thomas G. Chapman, trust officer. A native of Jamesville, Lilley served the Bank of Jamesville as assistant cashier for a while, resigning that position to become associated with Raleigh Savings Bank and Trust Company and Citizens National Bank here in 1923. He attended Buies Creek Academy, now Campbell College. Lilley has served Raleigh Chapter American Institute of Banking as president and representative to the nation convention and has also served as a member of several national committees of the institute from which he is a graduate. He is married and has two children, his wife formerly being Miss Ethel Purcell, ladies' teller of Fulton National Bank, Atlanta. He is a member of Hayes Barton Baptist church. He became associated with the trust department of the First Citizens Bank and Trust Company February 1, 1939.

WIER-ANDREWS Miss Kathleen L. Andrews and Mr. Henry C. Wier were married on November 5th in Suffolk, Va. They are making their home in Williamston.
