TICE-MANNING

In a ceremony, lovely in its simplicity, Miss Mittie Brown Manning became the bride of Thomas Tice at the home of the bride's parents last Sunday morning at eight o'clock, the Rev. W. B. Harrington, pastor of the bride, officiating. Only members of the immediate families and a few close friends were present for the ceremony.

The living room was attractively decorated with fern and lovely cut flowers. The bride wore a two-piece suit of grape, trimmed with beaver, and her accessories were of grape and brown. Her flowers, sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley, were worn in a shoulder bouquet.

Mrs. Tice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Manning, of the Farm Life community. She received her education in the Farm Life school, where she graduated with the class of 1939.

Mr. Tice is the son of Mr. Noah Thomas Tice and the late Mrs. Tice. He received his education in the Farm Life school, and he is now a prosperous farmer.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Tice left for a trip to unannounced points. After December 1, they will make their home with the groom's father.

NEWBY-WYNNE

The marriage of Miss Irene Wynne, of Everetts and Norfolk, to Howard W. Newby, of Norfolk, took place Thursday, Nov. 23, at 10 o'clock in the First Christian Church (Disciples), Norfolk. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a small group of relatives and friends, was performed by the pastor, Dr. C. M. Gordon.

The bride wore a suit of plum with accessories to match. She had as her only attendant, her sister, Miss Blanche Wynne, of Norfolk. Mr. Newby had as his best man, Willis Fontress, Jr., also of Norfolk.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Newby left for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside at 530 Shirley Avenue, Norfolk.

HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE

Jamesville—Mrs. J. T. Uzzle and Mrs. Oscar Davenport were hostesses at an enjoyable bridge party on Monday night, Nov. 20th, at the home of Mrs. Uzzle. The honor guest, Mrs. Leslie Hardison, was showered with a variety of charming gifts after three tables. High score prize went to Mrs. A. J. Holliday, second high score to Miss Dolores James, and low score to Mrs. Camille Fleming Turner.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Walter Brown, served a salad plate, coffee, nuts and candies. Those playing were: Mesdames Leslie Hardison, A. J. Holliday, Clarence Sexton, Haywood Hyman, Harry Thompson, Camille Fleming Turner, Edgar Brown, Misses Opal Brown, Rosemary Peterson, Elizabeth Greenlee, Rachel Godwin, Lucie McInnis, Meiba Martin and Dolores James.

BULLOCK-STALLS

Miss Nellie Faye Stalls and Mr. James Otis Bullock were married in the office of Justice of the Peace J. L. Hassell here last Saturday with only a few close friends present for the ceremony. Justice Hassell officiated.

Mrs. Bullock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stalls, of Robersonville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Bullock of this county.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Jamesville—On Tuesday night, Miss Elizabeth Greenlee entertained her bridge club at her home on St. Andrews Street. The rooms were tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and roses, and the Thanksgiving motif was emphasized in table appointments and refreshments. A sweet course was served.

Bridge was played at three tables with the following receiving prizes at the end of the games: high score, Mrs. J. T. Uzzle; second high, Mrs. Clarence Sexton; floating prize, Mrs. Clarence Sexton.

Those attending were Mesdames Andrew Holliday, Leslie Hardison, Oscar Davenport, Clarence Sexton, J. T. Uzzle, Haywood Hyman, Misses Opal Brown, Rosemary Peterson, Rachel Godwin, Dolores James, Lucie McInnis.

Leave for Robersonville

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Tisdale, located here for the tobacco season, left today for their home in Robersonville.

IN MEMORIAM

Just two years ago tonight, Don God called you away. Home is so lonely without you. It will never be home again.

How long and weary the nights do seem. As I sit thinking of you, Knowing you are gone, And can never come to me.

To your grave I often wander, Placing flowers there. How it breaks my heart to know, You are sleeping in the clay.

And I often wonder why I had to be left alone. The Lord knows best and His will must be done.

If your death was only a dream, And you could come back to me, It would be home again, How happy I would be.

I hope to meet you in a brighter world above. Where we will have no more sorrow, And all sad days will be over.

Your devoted wife, LULA A. LILLEY.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who were so thoughtful and kind to us during the recent illness and death of our mother and aunt, Mrs. Sarah Cobb Price.

Jeane T. Price and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Maylon Price.
