RECENT BRIDE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. George Bunch, of Greenville, a recent bride, was entertained at a lovely shower by Miss Virginia McLawhorn, at her home here on East Main Street Friday night. The guests were greeted at the door by the hostess and the honoree and directed to the punch bowl over which Miss Rachel Johnson presided.

Pine, holly and old English ivy decorated the spacious rooms where guests were entertained, lighted with red and blue lights. A beautiful Christmas tree laden with red favors, which were presented to the guests was at one end of the hall.

Games and contests were directed by Mrs. D. C. McLawhorn, after which a delicious salad course was served by the hostess and Miss Rachel Johnson. Mrs. Bunch received many lovely and useful gifts.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sumrell and Mrs. Maud Sumrell, of Greenville; Mrs. Bob Allshooks, of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. Moses Wheeler, Mrs. Thelma Jones, Mr. Frank Conway, Mrs. Leslie Carrow, Mrs. Irene White, Mrs. Maud Waters, Mrs. Rylan Grizzard, Mrs. Cecil Smith, Mrs. Carol Jones, Misses Clara Eubanks, Bertie Martin, Martha Rhodes Ward, Shammie Ramey, Nora Grimes, Mr. D. C. McLawhorn and Angela and Gertrude McLawhorn.

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Dewey Leggett charmingly entertained at the home of Mrs. Javan Rogers in Bear Grass Wednesday night announcing the engagement of her sister, Miss Vera Green Rogers, to Mr. Leroy Harrison.

Guests were greeted at the door by the hostess and directed to the punch bowl over which Mrs. Leonard Mobley presided. Sprays of holly, and green plants decorated the hall and the two living rooms where tables were set for bridge. The mantle was banked with English ivy and holly with red tapers on either end.

Tallies were given out by Miss Hattie Lou Roberson, of Robersonville. Following six progressions, Mrs. Russell Rogers was presented a box of Old Spice cosmetics neatly wrapped in red cellophane and Miss Doris Rogers, second high, was presented a double deck of cards.

A silver candlestick with a huge red candle on each table shed a soft light as guests were served delicious ambrosia and angel food cake. A tiny parcel of rice wrapped in red cellophane and tied with white ribbon was on each plate, bearing the inscription on a narrow strip of paper, Vera-Leroy, January 13, 1940.

The honoree was presented lingerie attractively wrapped with dainty white wedding bells dangling from the package.

Other guests were Misses Doris Rogers, Theresa Rogers, Magdalene Bunting, Hattie Lou Roberson, of Robersonville; Viola Harrison, Annie Mae Davis, Doris Jenkins, Virginia Shindler, Ruby Malone, Mesdames Javan Rogers, Nathan Rogers, E. D. Harris, Russell Rogers, J. D. Wynne, Leonard Mobley, R. L. Leggett and Roby Rogers.

FURNITURE

For a Happy Christmas

Furniture is a gift that continues to give service after Christmas and New Year's and the holidays are forgotten. And every home needs so many items from our stock to make it more comfortable.

If you wish to spend a little more, then give the tots a bed to themselves; mother an electric refrigerator; father, easy chair; sister could do well with a bedroom suite; brother would enjoy a wardrobe for keeping his clothes from the dust.

Not only these; there are scores of gifts in our store that are both serviceable and economical. You will be glad that you didn't buy a gift that lasted only a short time.
