Lee was ably given by Lala Smithwick, and a pageant, Dolly's Dream of Benjamin Franklin, was portrayed by sixteen boys and girls from the Farm Life school. The entire program was well rendered and enjoyed by those present. The auxiliary wishes to thank those who sponsored and presented this part of our program.

This being legislative month in our auxiliary, Mrs. W. R. Taylor, as chairman, invited Mr. Hugh Horton to talk on legislation. He gave a very splendid talk stressing five major objectives of the American Legion and Auxiliary. At the conclusion our regular business was in order.

Mrs. Arthur White, our first vice president, called the meeting to order, serving for our president, Mrs. Davenport, who is at present incapacitated.

The following reports were given: $3.00 was sent to Oteen for Christmas cheer, $2.50 to local Christmas Cheer fund, all Gold Star Mothers in county remembered at Christmas, community Christmas tree at Jamesville, Sixty-eight homes given baskets, some families having as many as eight or ten members; approximately $100.00, $20 from our treasury and balance by private donations, was spent to gladden the hearts of over 150 people, both white and colored at Christmas time.

Several books were given by our president, one entitled "Recitations for all occasions," and six magazines, 12 copies each, to the Jamesville High School, and to the Farm Life High School, "The Life of Robert E. Lee."

The secretary read a thank you card from Mrs. Davenport for a gift sent her. The auxiliary wishes for her a speedy recovery.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Miss PHYLLIS OWEN, Home Service Director, Virginia Electric And Power Company

The glorious holiday season with its festive hoard of rich foods is closed and the home maker is interested in giving her family the wholesome nourishing meals needed to carry them through the cold winter months.

Breakfast is important and should not be eaten too hastily. A good breakfast is a fine start for a successful day. We are apt to think of this meal in terms of fruit juice, bacon, eggs, toast and coffee. This menu should be varied and tempting.

Rice is a splendid source of energy and is one of the foods which is easily reheated and which does not change flavor when reheated.

Serve it hot with cream and sugar or work it into many sorts of delicious breakfast dishes such as pancakes, muffins, fritters, or omelets such as:

- Rice Pancakes
1 cup warm boiled Rice
1 cup milk
2 eggs
2 teaspoons baking powder
1-2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter
1-2 cup flour
- Combine rice, salt, milk, butter and egg yolks. Stir in sifted flour and baking powder. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake on hot greased griddle.
- Yield: 28 3-inch cakes.
- Rice Muffins
1 cup boiled rice
2 eggs
1-2 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk
5 tablespoons melted shortening
1-1/2 cups flour
2 teaspoons sugar
- Beat well the rice, milk, beaten eggs, shortening. Sift flour, sugar, salt, and baking powder into batter. Mix only enough to combine. Bake in greased muffin pans.
- Yield: 12 average size muffins. Temperature: 400 degrees F. Time: 25 minutes.
- Creamed Rice with Eggs Au Gratin
3 cups hot boiled rice
6 eggs
1-1/2 cups medium white sauce
1-2 cup grated cheese
- Combine the rice and white sauce. Place a one-half inch layer of creamed rice in a buttered shallow oven dish or individual ramekin. Make slight hollows in the rice. Break an egg into each hollow. Season with grated cheese. Bake until the eggs are set.
- Yield: 6 servings. Temperature: 350 degrees F. Time: 25 minutes.
- Rice Omelet
1-1/2 cups cooked flaky rice
1-2 cup milk
1 tablespoon flour
1-4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
1 tablespoon fat
1 cup cooked fruit, meat, fish or

Cheese.
Separate the eggs and beat the yolks thoroughly. Make a sauce with the milk, flour and salt. Heat the rice in the sauce and add to the egg yolks. Fold in the well beaten whites of the eggs. Have ready and hot a skillet containing the fat, and pour the egg mixture into the pan. Heat the omelet slowly and move the pan about so the omelet will cook around the edge at the same rate as in the center. As soon as the omelet has browned lightly on the bottom and sides and set, place in a moderate oven for five to ten minutes. When the omelet is done, crease it through the center. Fold over and serve immediately. Before folding the omelet, one half of the omelet may be spread with grated cheese, jelly, fish or creamed meat or fruit pulp.

Yield: 4 servings. Temperature: moderate. Time: 10 minutes.
