

Martins Victorious Over Greenville

With the Williamston Martins now back in tip-top form, the Greenville All-Stars caused very little trouble last night as they were swamped 48-24 in a thrilling contest here.

With Pap Diem back in the lineup, the floor play and passing of the Martins has improved greatly and now that Pap seems almost ready to put on the steam, the locals should not lose another game this season.

"Big Leaguer" Beard, flashy forward, again proved his prowess as a point-maker, leading the offensive attack of the Martins.

The Martins will enter their first tournament next week in Washington.

Locals Divide Twin Bill With Edenton

Williamston's high school basketball teams divided a twin bill here last Tuesday evening with Edenton's high school representatives.

Led by Boykin, who hooped 15 points, the local boys turned in a 23-6 victory over the Edenton Aces. C. T. Roberson was next with six points.

In the girls' game, the visitors scored a 39-32 victory to feature the evening play. Jackson led the locals with a dozen points, Leggett and Dunn competing on about an equal basis for second scoring honors.

The locals will go into action again next Tuesday night.

Watch for the Masked Martins, a red-masked basketball team.

Tarboro Offers Club Franchise For Sale

Fayetteville Said To Have Offered $2,500 For Rights

Local Fans Would Like To See Washington Enter the League Line-up

Shuffled and juggled around by the Tarboro citizenry and private management, the Edgecombe capital's baseball club franchise finally wound up on the auction block this week, late reports indicating its fate is still uncertain.

Offered to Washington, the franchise still remains the property of Buck Marrow who took it over during the latter part of last season following a shake-up in the team's player personnel. Reports stated that other towns in the State were interested in the franchise, and it was said that Fayetteville had offered the owner, Charles K. (Buck) Marrow, $2,500 for the league entry, the price to include all players, (sixteen on present reserve list) and all equipment necessary to "operate a club in this league."

The franchise was placed on the block after Portsmouth apparently frowned on the plan to take over the club and operate a farm. Called upon to raise this amount and that amount and after doing a good job along those lines, Tarboro citizens have had little to say about the proposed sale of the club franchise, according to unofficial reports reaching here.

A line-up, more or less definite, is expected by the time the league directors meet in New Bern next

SCHEDULE

Coastal Plain league directors are scheduled to talk schedule when they meet in a special session over in New Bern next Monday night.

The tentative schedule, calling for 128 games beginning on April 25 and ending August 30, is likely to be shot to pieces and another attempt made in the business of pitting teams against teams. As it now stands, Williamston is scheduled to open against Tarboro in Tarboro, but there is some doubt if Tarboro will be in the league and it is not any too certain that Williamston will be in there to play Tarboro even if Tarboro continues in the circuit. Apparently there's much scheduling to be done about one day next Monday.

Bowlers Set Record On the Alleys Here

A unique and outstanding record was established in the local bowling alley last night when four bowlers rolled three games each to average 119 pins per game.

The foursome, made up of Roger Critcher, Kader Rogerson, Shelton Hall and Roger Flack scored as follows:

Roger Critcher—125, 106 and 128; Kader Rogerson—107, 122, and 103; Shelton Hall—134, 152, and 115; Roger Flack—120, 118, and 108.

With the improvements made in the local bowling alleys, bowlers are taking renewed interest in their game and heated battles are staged with good scores.

OZARKS TO PLAY HERE

The next traveling basketball team of national rating to appear here will be the Original Ozark Hill Billies, a girls' team, and they will play the Williamston Martins two exhibitions here on February 5 and 6th.

The girls' squad is so good it lists only men's teams as opponents and among its members is a 6 foot three inch lassie, who is no mean looker.

Monday night Mr. J. Eason Lilley, president of the local club, has not definitely committed himself and it is not known whether he'll operate the club here this coming season.

Several clubs are still without managers, and the league, as a whole, is getting off to a late start.

Cooperation Is Succeeding!

"Clean Up or Close Up" Campaign, with Public's Aid, Is Ridding State of Illegal, Disreputable Beer "Joints"

Colonel Edgar H. Bain, State Director

Six months ago, the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee began its efforts to eliminate those relatively few beer outlets that sought to hide liquor selling and other illegal activities behind the respectability of legal beer licenses.

"Clean Up or Close Up" was the ultimatum.

The results are gratifying. Public sentiment has been awakened. Newspapers all over the state have reinforced us with editorial support. Law enforcement agencies have responded with constructive aid. And 37 licenses have been revoked—37 "divs," so to speak, "kayoed."

For the generous cooperation received, we are most grateful. Accept our pledge that throughout the New Year we shall continue unrelentingly the job of driving law violators out of the beer retailing business in North Carolina—driving them out, and keeping them out.

"Courageous support from the public, press, officials and law-abiding beer retailers accounts for our Committee's heartening success," declares Colonel Bain. "My appreciation is hereby extended to all, together with my appeal for continuance of this intelligent cooperation."

Editorial Comment on "Clean Up" Campaign

Rockingham Post-Dispatch: "The industry does not want beer sold in joints where blind tigers operate. That's why the industry has a 'clean up' committee."

Statesville Daily: "The average citizen is still rubbing his eyes in unbelief, but slowly is becoming convinced when he sees beer dealers losing their licenses after engaging in questionable practices. And that has happened here in Tredegar."

Salisbury Post: "The beer folk have taken the stand that they want beer dispensed only in establishments of good general reputation. To that end they are filing formal legal petitions for the closing of such establishments as serve beer, but fail in some measure to sustain a good name."

Oxford Ledger: "An alertness to insure distribution of their product only through reputable outlets is keeping the brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee active in many sections of North Carolina."

Durham Sun: "The dealers in beer have outlawed the boot-legal. Such a campaign is certain to have wholesome effects."

The State (Raleigh): "Col. Edgar Bain is reporting excellent progress. The work has been progressing quietly but excellent results have been accomplished."

Jenksboro Record: "... the state committee of the brewers and beer distributors is in a position to render a very definite service in ridding communities of places which belong in the category of 'divs' and low class hang-outs."

Hickory Daily Record: "The Beer Committee has done its duty, and all persons who are sincerely interested in curbing the illegal sale of hard liquor will welcome the opportunity to join in the crusade."

Lexington Dispatch: "where persons are found selling without licenses the violation is promptly reported. This work is a good many instances may result in a decided check on bootlegging."
