Who Wouldn't Be Confused?

THESE DETROIT GIRLS know from pictures they've seen that bathing suits are the proper attire for southern wear, yet insidious rumors keep cropping up of snow and cold all over the United States. So we mustn't blame them too much if they cling to their furs by Robert, especially since it looks as though they were going on tour with this transparent Pontiac deluxe six. Built by the Fisher Body division of General Motors for display at the 1940 New York World's Fair, the car will be exhibited before the opening of the exposition in 24 cities from Miami northward to Boston. These include Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Raleigh.

Club Participating In Flower Contest

By LOUIE P. MARTIN, Pres.
The Williamston Woman's Club has been invited to enter the contest in the selection of an appropriate and representative flower for the General Federation of Women's Clubs. This flower must be one not chosen by a State Federation.

The selection by the individual states of an official flower has been in progress for nearly fifty years, until now practically each state has an official flower, this includes the District of Columbia, Hawaii and Alaska. North Carolina has no official flower. Perhaps by common consent the ox-eyed daisy has been designated as our State flower.

It has been said that the seed of this daisy were broadcast through the State in the feed for the horses of Sherman's triumphant army. North Carolina is one of the richest floral States in the Union and it does seem a shame that we have no official flower that is truly representative of the State. The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs has officially selected a pine sprig and cone as their emblem, which represent beauty and strength.

Every Woman's club in every State Federation is being asked to enter this flower contest to select an official flower for the General Federation—a flower which will "typify the

Frigidaire Announces Lower Operating Cost

J. D. Taylor, local Frigidaire dealer, states that millions of users are familiar with the meter-miser cold making mechanism in their electric refrigeration but this year the meter-miser has been designed to operate at even less cost, at the same time giving equally as much refrigeration power as in the past.

aims and ideals of the largest body of organized womanhood in the world." Miss Sleeper was asked to send in a suggestion for this flower for the Williamston Woman's Club. Her suggestion was crimson clover with its two-fold mission in that it provides food for the soil and offers graceful beauty.
