Mrs. O. L. Williams Addresses Woman's Club on Wednesday

Mrs. O. L. Williams, president of the Fifteenth district of North Carolina Women's Clubs, was present for the monthly meeting of the local club. This meeting was held on Wednesday in the club rooms with about seventy-five people present, including members of the Senior and Junior clubs and other guests.

The choral club gave two numbers in their very capable manner and Miss Grace Talton, of the local schools, gave a delightful instrumental solo.

The program was in charge of the American Citizenship and Public Welfare Committee, Mrs. N. C. Green, chairman, who introduced Mrs. Williams to the club. The district president in a very gracious manner commended the club on the good work it has done in the past; congratulated same on having paid its foundation fund in full; praised our choral club and the outstanding work done by the club reported by the club last year, this being instructing safety to 3,000 school children.

Mrs. Williams advised that the State Convention of N. C. clubs would be held in Greensboro on May 1, 2 and 3. She touched on the fact that this is the Golden Jubilee year of the general federation, being its 50th birthday, and urged that we select our three pioneer women who have been outstanding in our club since its organization and report same to headquarters.

She then gave us a few words on American Citizenship and Public Welfare, bringing in the program on Highway Safety and the Child Welfare Work that has been carried on this year. Her talk was very much enjoyed by all present.

The social committee served hot tea and wafers at the end of the business meeting.—Reported.

James Wallace Wins In Oratorical Contest Here

James Wallace, Jamesville High School senior, was declared the best high school orator in Martin County in the oratorical contest conducted by the John W. Hassell post of the American Legion in the final contest for the county held in the Legion Hall Tuesday night.

As such he receives a sterling silver American Legion award and enters the contest with other county winners of Bertie, Hertford, Northampton and Gates counties and if he wins in this round, he will compete at Greenville on March 26 for the Eastern North Carolina winner.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wallace, of Jamesville. Mr. Wallace was a veteran in the World War and served in France.

This oratorical contest is a part of a nation-wide contest conducted by the American Legion. The national winner will receive a four thousand dollar college education in any college or university he wishes to attend.
