Legion Auxiliary Meets Here Saturday Afternoon

The American Legion Auxiliary met Saturday afternoon, April 6, with twelve members present.

Mrs. J. R. Winslow, child-welfare chairman, had charge of the program for the day. She introduced Dr. J. W. Williams, local health officer, who gave a splendid talk on Personal Hygiene and Sanitation. His remarks were well received and he offered several suggestions in which different organizations can cooperate with the health officer. Mrs. Goodmon asked, in the name of our auxiliary, that if any veterans' children are reported to the health officer, our auxiliary will offer any aid possible.

Mrs. Winslow gave a short talk on unit child welfare work and thanked the auxiliary for its cooperation.

Mrs. Goodmon reported on the post officers convention held recently in Rocky Mount. She also gave a report on rehabilitation.

Mrs. H. L. Swain gave a report on State Child Welfare work and asked that all units send their reports monthly to headquarters. Mrs. Walter S. Craven, state child welfare chairman, stated that North Carolina had one of the best set-ups in any state. Mrs. Craven is a candidate for state president for 1940-41.

The business meeting was opened with the reading of the minutes, which were approved as read.

The treasurer gave her report, all obligations have been met.

The time of the auxiliary meetings has been changed to the second Monday night in each month.

The following were appointed on the nominating committee: Mesdames John A. Ward, W. O. Griffin and J. H. Ayers.

The auxiliary through Rev. Z. T. Piephoff furnished a film, "Black Beauty", which has been shown to 3500 people in Martin County. The majority of this number are children of school age. Rev. Piephoff is to be commended in showing these films throughout the county. We are glad to have even a small share in this project.

The auxiliary is to sponsor Girls State and to pay $12.50 for same.

This concluded our business and we adjourned to meet in the auxiliary room the second Monday night in May.

Juniors Entertain At Banquet Friday Night

Local high school juniors entertained the 33 members of the senior class in the Woman's Club hall here last Friday evening, the event climaxing the school's social calendar for the term. The Mexican motif, advanced in the festive and colorful decorations, made an attractive setting and added to the spirit of the banquet.

Billy Mercer, ably handling the task of toastmaster, introduced the speakers and headlined the announcements. Appropriate speeches, heard from several quarters, were enjoyed along with an entertainment program featuring the Gurganus Brothers and their string band. Bennie Godwin's lusty voice was an added feature in the entertainment program. Following the sumptuous meal, dancing was enjoyed by the group for a couple of hours.

Master Bobby Manning and little Miss Lee Handy acted as mascots for the seniors and juniors respectively.

It Sounds Like Bragging

And maybe it is.

Anyhow, we have this excuse to offer: that this is not what we say about ourselves but what readers have said in letters that they wrote us without any solicitation:

"It is the most readable paper in the two Carolinas."

"I like The News because its editorial policy is crusading."

"You are producing a newspaper of interest not only to townspeople but out-of-towners as well."

"I've never been in Charlotte. But in The Charlotte News I find something, a genuine person-to-person friendliness, that seems to back up your contention that Charlotte is a friendly city."

Pretty nice, eh? We think so, and we hope that others will think so enough to take a trial subscription to —
