NOTICE SERVING SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina, Martin County. In The Superior Court.
Town of Williamston vs. Ransome Johnson and Any and All other Persons claiming an interest in the Subject Matter of this Proceeding.

Today's Fashion

White adds dash.

By VERA WINSTON

A CRISP WHITE collar adds dash and verve to any dark frock. Here's a grand afternoon model, effective yet essentially simple. The fabric is black crepe, the collar is sheer lingerie with black velvet ribbon run through its lace beading and a fluffy lace ruffle bordering it. The dress closes with tiny buttons to the waist where there is a self-belt. The nicely flared skirt swings from the waist. It has center seams front and back, and short sleeves.

The defendant, Ransome Johnson, and Any and All other Persons claiming an interest in the Subject Matter of this Proceeding, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Martin County, N. C., in which proceeding said petitioner is asking that it be allowed to condemn certain lands to enlarge the Town's Cemetery, wherein the defendant claims an interest. Said lands being described as follows:

Beginning at a post or stake the Free Public Col. School House was situated and being nearly opposite to the Southern boundary of the public burying ground belonging to the Town of Williamston and on the West side of the Hamilton Road and about two hundred and twenty (220) feet from said road, running thence south forty degrees, west two hundred and eighty (280) feet to another post or stake a corner, thence a southeasterly course and parallel with said Hamilton road and southwestern boundary of said old Free Public Col. School House lot two hundred (200) feet to another post or stake a corner, thence north forty degrees east two hundred and eighty (280) feet to a post or stake the southern corner of said old Free Public Col. School House lot, thence a northwesterly course along and with the western boundary line of the school house lot several times above named two hundred (200) feet to the beginning, containing by measurement one (1) acre more or less, and being the same land decided to Ransome Johnson by John R. Lanier and wife, said deed being recorded in

Said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of Martin County at his office in Williamston, North Carolina, on or before the 29th day of April, 1940, and answer or demur to said petition, copies of which have been filed in said office, or petitioner will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the petition.

This the 18th day of March, 1940.

L. B. WYNNE,
Clerk of Superior Court,
Martin County, N. C.
