

Martins Drop Three Games in A Row to Tarboro's Cubs

"Bad Breaks" Stalk Martins As They Battle for Place in Loop

Tarboro Takes Tilt From Williamston Sunday Afternoon

Beautiful Catches Rob Locals Of Number of Base Knocks

Tarboro, leader of the Coastal Plain, overwhelmed the Martins in Tarboro Sunday afternoon as the Cubs turned eleven hits into eight runs, while Williamston was only able to score a lone marker.

Charlie Metelski, Cub leftfielder, was not only the star of the afternoon at bat, getting three hits for four attempts, including a home run, but he made three beautiful catches in the field, and along with McHenry and Eure, kept the Martins from boosting their score.

"Bertie" Miller went the route for the Martins allowing 11 hits and fanning two, while Bryson, Tarboro hurler gave up 10 hits and struck out a pair.

Gene Albritton, with three safeties for as many trips to the plate, was the locals' big gun. Newman, Rock and Miller followed with two for four.

JUSTICE

There ain't been no justice on Williamston's baseball club this season. Bad breaks have haunted the club as the organization, getting off on that old proverbial wrong foot, tried to break step and go places. But possibly to-night there'll be justice on the team, for Mr. Justice, in person, is expected to report from Tennessee for duty at second base against Goldsboro over in the Wayne capital.

Justice is a brother to Tarboro's third baseman, and comes here through a special connection. A new pitcher was added to the staff today in the person of Levine. He trained with the Martins last year.

Red Swain Pitches 16 Innings During Day To Earn Pay

Extra-Base Hits Were Numerous; Stotler and Swain Hit Homers

Tarboro came here yesterday and not only took the delayed opening league game, but the 11-inning night-cap as well. The afternoon score was 6-4, the night score being 8-7. Robersonville's band gave several appropriate numbers before and during the afternoon.

Going into the ninth inning of the first game with the score knotted at 4-4, Tarboro's Cubs touched Hurler Red Swain for two runs on two hits, an error, and a stolen base.

Schenz started at bat with three hits for four times at bat, driving in four runs.

Parker and Swain both pitched the route, Parker fanning 8 batters and walking 3, while Swain struck out 5 and walked three.

In the nightcap which lasted almost three hours, Oderizzi started on the mound for Williamston, but was relieved by the old workhorse, Red Swain, who pitched the remaining seven innings, giving up four bingles. Mosser, Tarboro relief pitcher, who also went the last seven innings, fanned nine batters and allowed only four hits.

Swain's home run in the ninth tied the score at 7-7, no scores being made in the tenth. Justice singled in the eleventh, went to third on an error and stole home to win the ball game.

Thompson was the best performer at the plate hitting a triple, a double and two singles. Stotler got a home run and a single for four attempts.

New Bern's Bears Scare 12-11 Victory Out of the Martins

Thirteen Errors Make Night Contest Loose; Albritton Connects

The Williamston Martins continued their hitting and scoring spree last Friday night in New Bern, but with five errors and a let-down in pitching at crucial moments, they were edged out in the ninth inning by the Bears, the score being 12-11.

New Bern counted three runs in the third, but Williamston came back in the fourth with 4 counters. The locals scored two times in the fifth and once in the sixth, to take a 7-4 lead. In the seventh frame, New Bern tied the score and went ahead with a run in the eighth.

The Martins scored four times in the ninth inning on a walk, Rock's double, Keller's single and a home run by Gene Albritton.

However, not to be outdone, the Bears staged a similar 4-run rally in their half of the ninth from Lee's single, four walks and an error.

Both teams looked very ragged in the field, New Bern making eight errors, while five were chalked up against the Martins.

The leading hitter of the day was Thompson, Martins' left fielder, who hit safely three times for four trips to the plate. Keller, with two triples, followed.
