CUTCHIN-RAY

A marriage of interest in North Carolina and Virginia took place on Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church when Miss Mary Virginia Ray, daughter of John Smith Ray, of Fayetteville, and the late Sara Gilchrist Ray, became the bride of Frank Story Cutchin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ashley Philip Cutchin, of Franklin, Va. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Z. T. Piephoff, pastor of the church.

The church was decorated with Ascension lilies, white snapdragons, ferns, palms, and cathedral candles. During the ceremony, Mrs. Wheeler Martin and Charles Leonard, violinist, played the Meditation from Massenet's "Thais", following a program which included Saint-Saens' "Le Cygne," Rubinstein's "Melody in F" and My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice from Saint-Saens' "Samson and Delilah."

The bride was escorted by her brother, John McNeill Ray, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a costume suit of navy with blue and white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Cutchin, mother of the groom, wore a costume of violet wool sheer with a corsage of Columbia roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom had his father for his best man. The ushers were Harmon Smith, of Fayetteville, and Ashley Philip Cutchin, Jr., of Hopewell, Va.

The bride is a grand-daughter of the late Randall and Mary Darroch Gilchrist and of the late Neil L. and Martha Black-Ray. On her paternal side, she is descended from the Highlanders who some two hundred years ago emigrated from Scotland and came to settle in the Upper Cape Fear Valley. Through her father, she is related to the Smith and McNeill families of North Carolina and is a descendant of Jennie Bahn MacNeill of Revolutionary fame.

Mr. Cutchin attended Woodberry Forest School and was graduated from there in 1926. Later he entered the University of Virginia from which he was graduated in 1932. In June of that year he was admitted to the Virginia bar, and afterward continued his studies in law at the university.

Mrs. Cutchin is associated with the Carolina Telephone Company in its offices here and will continue her work here for the present.
