Half-and-half costume.
By VERA WINSTON

THE HALF-AND-HALF costume, patterned and plain, is popular for suits this spring. Here it is developed in navy and green plaid for the skirt, and navy wool (with a plaid collar) for the jacket. The jacket, to show that it is very new, is longer than the usual run of suit coats. The yoke terminates in a seam over the bust. The back is the same except for two inverted pleats in place of the seams. The skirt uses the plaid on the straight except for a panel center front, which is like one large box pleat.
