

Our State Needs A Business Executive For Its Governor

The State Has Such An Executive in the PERSON of

LEE GRAVELY

The Man Qualified to Fill the Important Position

LEE GRAVELY SAYS: "North Carolina is a big business in which you and I are partners. I will handle the taxpayers' money as you would handle your own. I will provide old-age pensions and aid for dependent children. I am opposed to the sales tax and its method of collection. If elected, I shall try to provide new markets and uses for farm products together with improved farm-to-market roads. We should have more adequate facilities for the care of sick and infirm. I favor a retirement fund for state employees and am against a diversion of highway funds. I also favor the expansion of our school system, especially vocational education. Last and above all, I endorse President Roosevelt's administration and its objectives."

VOTE SATURDAY

AND VOTE FOR LEE GRAVELY. He is an energetic businessman-farmer of fifty and is available next January to head North Carolina's largest Enterprise.

Neighbors and associates offer highest testimonials as to character and ability. Promises employer and employee that he will apply the same sound methods to this office that has brought him success in private endeavors.

Citizens interested in procuring his services are asked to place an (X) before the name of LEE GRAVELY, Democratic candidate for Governor on Saturday, May 25th.

Gravely's Statement

"It will be my purpose as Governor to give the State an efficient business administration in which one hundred cents of benefit shall be derived from every tax dollar spent. This statement is taken from Gravely's original announcement.

It pays to have a business man and a business plan in government. LEE GRAVELY is capable and will, if given the opportunity, give North Carolina a business administration. LEE GRAVELY's record stands out above all the other candidates and he will represent all the people all the time.
