One of Griffins Township's oldest nost loved and most honored fathers grandfathers, and great-grandfath-ers, Mr. Simon D. Griffin, was honored with a big barbecue, fried chicken and many other delicious foods served picnic style at his home near Smithwicks Creek Church on his 87th birthday, May 30. Mr. Griffin has six living children, 34 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren, all of which were present except four grandchildren who were nable to be there.

Many friends of Mr. Griffin and his children enjoyed the day very much. About ninety persons were present around the picnic table in-cluding his brothers and sisters.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffin, Mr. Griffin's brother, of Goldsboro; Mrs. Lizzie Griffin. of Goldsboro; Mrs. Ada

Brown, of Jamesville; Mrs. Paul Leg.
