Members Plan a More Extensive Program of Activities for New Year

Holding their last meeting for the club year, members of the Junior Woman's Club were entertained with a vocal and musical program by Ben Manning and Gordon Bennett Tuesday night.

New officers were recognized and welcomed by the president, Mrs. J. A. Eason, and members. Mrs. Curtis Leggett expressed appreciation in behalf of herself and Mrs. Eason for the privilege and honor accorded them as delegates to the annual Women's Club Convention held in Greensboro. Information and notes gathered at the convention were turned over to the various committees for use to enable them to make more efficient plans for the coming year.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Eason the members of the ways and means committee will meet soon and discuss plans for raising money during the summer months.

Ten dollars was given to the Red Cross Fund for war sufferers and refugees. Mrs. Charles Godwin, Jr., was appointed chairman of a committee to map out the material for the year books by the first club meeting in the fall.

The meeting was brought to a close by a summary of the year's work on the club's main project, the public library. The report read by Mrs. Herbert O. Peele was a copy of the one entered as competition for the Mamie Brown Latham award and received honorable mention. Members of the club were highly commended for its work at headquarters.

Members pledged themselves to a more extensive program of activities for the new year.

Surplus For Red Cross At Cut Prices

Washington — Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, announces that an arrangement has been worked out under which the Red Cross will obtain American surplus food supplies for war refugees in France at about half the market cost.

Plans already have been made, he said, for the Red Cross to purchase 5,881,000 pounds of wheat flour, 1,250,000 pounds of corn meal, 750,000 pounds of lard, 800,000 pounds of raisins. These commodities will be included in the cargo of a ship which the Cross Cross has chartered and which will sail early this month.

Mr. Wallace explained that by cooperating with the Agriculture Department the Red Cross would be able to purchase much greater quantities of surplus foods with its available money.

The arrangement provides for export subsidy payments by the Department of the Red Cross on commodities it will purchase for refugee distribution. The payments, which will average about one-half the market cost, will be taken from funds appropriated for disposal of American farm surpluses.

"While the need for additional food among the poor families in this country has not yet been adequately met, there is an even more tragic need for some of these surplus supplies in Europe," Mr. Wallace said.

"Our surpluses of these specific food products are such that we can assist United States producers through the increased distribution that will result from this plan, at the same time that we are making it possible for the Red Cross to accomplish greater humanitarian ends with its available funds."

"Insofar as funds available to us will permit, it is our hope that we can continue this sort of cooperative arrangement if subsequent boatloads of Red Cross supplies go to the war-torn areas."

Miss Talley Becomes Bride of Asa Crawford Last Wednesday

Ceremony Takes Place in Randleman Methodist Church

The marriage of Miss Mildred Talley and Mr. Asa Henry Crawford took place in the Methodist Church in Randleman, home of the bride, on Wednesday, June 12, at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Stokes, minister of the church, officiated.

The edifice was decorated with madonna lilies with palms and ferns forming a background. On either side of these were seven-branched candelabra interspersed with lilies. White ribbons and carnations marked the pews for the family and intimate friends.

Miss Rebecca Harrison rendered a program of nuptial music before the ceremony and accompanied Miss Mary Louise Talley, of Randleman, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and Mr. Charles Leonard, who sang "At Dawning." She used the traditional wedding marches of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn for the processional and recessional. McDowell's "To a Wild Rose" was played softly during the ceremony.

Ushers were Messrs. C. B. Clark, Jr., Edwin Peele, Charles Herriott, William Haislip, Reginald Simpson and J. H. Saunders, Jr.

Mrs. Watson Milliken, of Ashboro, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore rose beige woolen crepe with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of lavender orchids. The other attendant was little Miss Mary Talley as junior bridesmaid. She wore a yellow organdy dress with a garland of tea roses around her head.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a dark blue cable corded net with large hat of Baker straw faced with blue and white. She carried a corsage of white orchids and valley lilies.

The groom had as his best man his father, Mr. K. B. Crawford.

Mrs. Talley, mother of the bride, wore black marquisette and a shoulder corsage of American beauty roses and the groom's mother, Mrs. Crawford, was dressed in flowered georgette and wore a shoulder corsage of white roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left by motor on a trip through the mountains of Virginia and Washington. They will be at home in Williamston next week.

Mrs. Crawford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talley, of Randleman, and is very popular in Piedmont North Carolina where she has always made her home, until she came to Williamston to teach. Since she has been here she has been interested in all phases of the town's life and will be welcomed by a large number of friends.

Mr. Crawford is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Kader Biggs Crawford, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Tazewell Jones, of Princess Anne, Maryland, pioneer residents of that state. He is the great grandson of Judge Asa Biggs, who was U. S. Senator, supreme court justice and one of the county's most prominent citizens in his day.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talley entertained with a buffet supper the wedding party, out-of-town guests and a number of intimate friends. After the wedding rehearsal, Miss Louise Matthews entertained the same guests at a cake cutting. Her spacious home was decorated with lovely summer flowers and refreshments carried out a color scheme of white and green. The dining table was centered by a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Ices, mints and nuts were served.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Jane and Clayton Moore, Jr., of Winston-Salem; Homer Barnhill, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. John McAllister, Mr. Ben Crawford and daughters, Chloe and Josephine, of Greensboro; Mrs. Paul Roy, of Asheboro; Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, of Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Mrs. Robert Clement, of Detroit; Mr. Pete Jones, of Charlotte; Miss Frances Hoyt, of Albemarle; Miss Mary Fort Carroll, of Wilson; Miss Irene Mizelle, of Snow Hill and Williamston; Mrs. Chloe Biggs Lanier, Mrs. W. H. Crawford, Miss Mildred Purvis, Miss Anna Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Saunders, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peele, Miss Sara Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Herriott, Messrs. Billie and C. B. Clark, Jr., Reginald Simpson and William Haislip, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leonard, Miss Emelyne Evans, all of Williamston.
