Professor Parker Subdues Martins In Listless Game

Errors Give Tarboro Advantage in Early Innings of First Game

Thursday in a holiday doubleheader the Williamston Martins split with Tarboro's Cubs as Manager Red Swain paced the Martins to an af-ternoon victory in Tarboro, their seventh in succession, but the Cubs counteracted in the nightcap here to give the Martins another taste of the bitter gall of defeat.

In the opener it was Swain all the way for the old sidewheeler was breezing them in as of old and only five Martin errors kept the Cubs in the ball game. Swain allowed but seven scattered hits during the con-test and struck the game's decisive

In the second the Martins tallied twice on hefty doubles by Bert Stot-ler and Wilcox, a fielder's choice and an outfield fly. Two hits by Rock and Slakis accounted for the third Martin rally.

At this point in the proceedings four of Williamsotn's misplays and a lone base hit by Mincy, gave the Edgecombe boys a pair of tallies. The Martins retained their lead un-til the fifth when more errors accounted for two more Tarboro runs rier. Another Williamston uprising nearly bore fruit in the ninth when Popovich bunted and reached third on a poor throw to first. But Slakis and Rock were retired to end the outburst.

The Cubs played their trump card in the ninth when Jack Pinion, home run hitter extraordinary, was named to pinch hit for Wrenn and nearly brought the house down. However, Swain merely hitched his pants and retired the slugger via the strike-out route. Parker then batted for Pitcher Akard and was out on a foul fly. Lozier Newman made a beauti-

Pitcher Akard and was out on a foul fly. Lozier Newman made a beautiful running catch in left field to end the game, and, incidentally, this Newman played a superb game at his unaccustomed left field position. Tasting defeat for the first time in seven games the Martins went down 5-0 in the finale before a disappointed but definitely not disappointing crowd. Breezy Beaird pitched well, allowing but nine well-scattered hits but his jinx returned in the form of but his jinx returned in the form of a two-hitter by Don Parker, of Tarboro, and five errors committed by his teammates.

The Cubs scored two times in the initial inning on hits by Metelski, Justice and Schenz and added another tally in the fourth on hits by Mincy and Pinion, Meanwhile the Martins were collecting their only base hifs off Parker in the second and Stotler and Beaird. Scoring twice in the eighth on two walks and Donner's hefty single to left field, the Cubs built up a lead which the Martins found impossible to overcome.

Beaird struck out four men and alowed three bases on balls, while his mound opponent whiffed 11, chief-ly from the upper of the Martin line-up, and gave four bases on halls. Schenz with two hits for three attempts and Donner with two runs batted in to pace the Cubs at

AMBULANCE CORPS RECEIVES $21,600

NEW YORK-The announcement Monday of the incorporation of the British-American Ambulance Corps brought in $21,600 within twenty-four hours, William V. C. Ruxton, president of liam V. C. Ruxton, president of the organisation, said today at the headquarters, at 46 Cedar Street, New York City.

"That is enough to buy twelve ambulances, equip them and maintain them for a year." Mr. Ruxton said. "On the basis of this first day's receipts, I have ordered twenty-two ambulances and a staff car, which will compose the first unit to be sent over.

"The Dodge Motor Company has promised delivery of the ambulances in three weeks, and they will be shipped over as soon as we receive them. The Allied Relief Fund has agreed to transport them free of charge."

The parishioners of St. James Protestant Episcopal Church, at Madison Avenue and Seventy-first Street, gave two ambulances or $3,600; the Theater Wing of the Allied Relief Fund, which also has its headquarters at 46 Cedar Street, gave two, and two were contributed anonymously.

The following each gave one ambulance; the York Club, of 4 East Sixty-second Street; Bundles for Britain, inc., of 484 Park Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Acosta Nichols, of Oyster Bay, L. I.; the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, of 295 Fifth Avenue; William V. C. Ruxton; and the twelfth was contributed "In memory of William S. Spaulding."

In renewing his appeal for Spaulding."

Spaulding."

In renewing his appeal for funds, and for volunteers to drive the ambulances, in Great Britain's defensive struggie, Mr. Ruxton emphasized that no amount was too small. Contributions should be made out to Wilton Pierce, Treasurer of the British-American Ambulance Corps, and sent to the corps at its headquarters at 46. Cedar Street, New York City. Mr. Pierce is a vice-president of the Chase National Bank of New York, which is the depository of the funds.

"Thumba up symbolizes the feeling of comradeship and sympathy which nearly all Americans feel for the British in their fight, with their backs against the sea, for all that freedom and democracy mean," Mr. Ruxton said. "It's a gesture which the British Tommy stands sorely in need of seeing, after the tremendous losses suffered in the Battle of Flanders and in defense of Paris, where so many hundreds of ambulances were lost, along with guns and motorized equipment.

"England needs hundreds of ambulances and men to drive them, to replace those lost in Flanders, those destroyed in the last week, and those which will be lost, in all probability, before we can get our first unit across."
