

Place New Model Car On Display

This section got its first peek at the new 1941 model cars today when the Dixie Motors placed on display one of the new Plymouth creations in their showroom here on Washington Street.

Advertised as America's low-priced luxury car, the new Plymouth is smartly streamlined with a performance that is smooth and comfortable. The patented floating power engine mountings, hypoid rear axle, amola steel coil front springs, oil filter, full pressure lubrication and numerous other features, all tend to improve this year's model.

As a fashion note, the 1941 Plymouth has a beautiful interior. Metal and grain are used extensively to

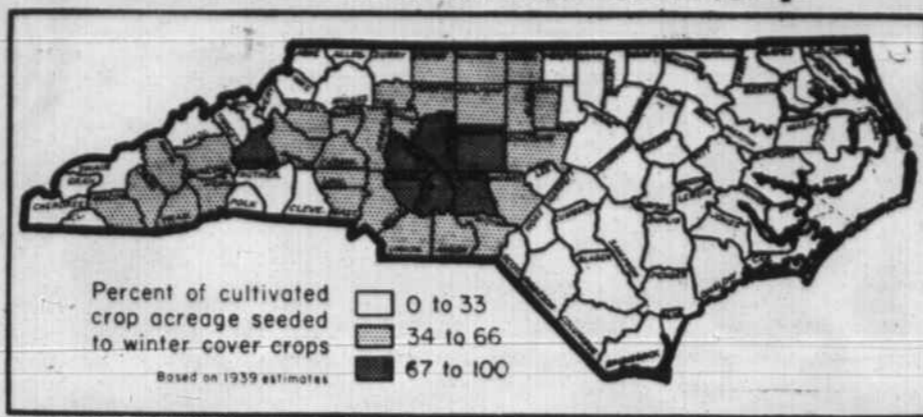

Demonstration Farmer Is Improving His Pastures

Tom Jackson, a Watauga County demonstration farmer of Meat Camp township, is securing excellent results in pasture and cropland improvement from the use of lime and phosphate.

According to Mr. William Everett, manager of Dixie Motors, driving ease is a synonym for the 1941 Plymouth. A completely new steering wheel with an unobstructed vision of the safety signal speedometer is an outstanding feature in the improvements.

The new Plymouth has many added features and to appreciate the car it must be seen and inspected, Mr. Everett said.

North Carolina Needs More Cover Crops

As shown by the map above, a considerable portion of North Carolina's cultivated farm land is left bare during the winter, subject to destructive erosion and leaching. It is estimated that North Carolina farmers participating in the AAA farm program seeded 620,000 acres of cover crops in the fall of 1939. The state AAA committee points out that farmers can prevent a large part of the annual loss of soil fertility by further increasing their acreage of protective winter cover crops.

Noon, in front of the Courthouse door Martin County, offer for sale to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described tract of land: Adjoining the lands of R. W. Salisbury and Brother, Mrs. J. All-American Calibre

Jim "Sweet" Lalanne, above, is expected to take over where George Stirnweiss left off in the University of North Carolina backfield. Coach Ray Wolf feels that if Lalanne can polish up his running attack he will be rated one of the best backs in the United States. "Sweet" Jim already has gained national reputation as a passer deluxe and with his promotion to regular play, he is expected to spark the Tar Heel forces along with All-American End Paul Severin.

Peahead's Demon Deacon

John Polanski, the jarring full-back of the Wake Forest Demon Deacons, is another Big Five star who is slated to gain his part of the national honors. Polanski, leading ground gainer on the nation's lead-better than ever, according to Coach Peahead Walker, and should easily rate the No. 1 fullback in the Southern Conference.

Tennis Tourney Is Heading For Final Rounds This Week

All But Six Men Have Been Eliminated in Singles Division

Play in the annual city tennis tournament reached a crescendo today as stronger, more experienced players marched steadily toward the final rounds. Six men remain in the singles division while five tandems are still in the running for the doubles title.

Favored Oscar Anderson meets tourney-superior package C. D. Pittman today in the quarter finals with the victor slated to take on Big Bill Spivey. Howard Cone's conqueror by 6-2, 6-4. In the other bracket Junie Peel meets Jim Cooke this afternoon with the winner slated to engage Rush Bondurant.

Both aforementioned semi-finals matches will take place Thursday afternoon with the Bondurant vs. winner of Peele-Cooke set to take precedence.

The powerful duo of Anderson and Bondurant has already reached the finals in the upper bracket though confusion still reigns in the lower bracket. This afternoon Bill Spivey and Vernon Bunting lock horns with James Manning and Leman Barnhill with the winner engaging the victor in the Hardy Rose and Jack Manning vs Dillon Cobb and Wheeler Manning match in the semi-finals.

Latest tourney results: Barnhill-Manning over Cowen-Green, by forfeit; Anderson-Bondurant over Pittman-Trahey, 6-0, 6-0; Howard Cone over Joe Thrower, 7-5, 6-4; Junie Peel over Cortez Green, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3; Oscar Anderson over Shelton Hall, 6-1, 6-1; C. D. Pittman, bye; Bill Spivey over Howard Cone, 6-2, 6-4; Vernon Bunting, bye; Rush Bondurant over Hardy Rose, 6-3, 8-6. Bill Spivey got a bye into singles semi-finals and Rush Bondurant outlasted Hardy Rose, 6-3, 8-6 in the only other quarter finals match.

Complete dope on the tennis situation can be had from the tourney chair's maintained in The Enterprise window.

Handsome trophies were recently ordered for presentation in post-tourney exercises to the victors.

Miss Jessie Mae Holloman, who is doing private duty nursing in Baltimore, is visiting relatives here.
