Married in County Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Franklin Goins, Jr., who were married in the Baptist Church, in Robersonville, Friday evening, August 30. Mrs. Goins is the former Miss Doris Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Winslow, of Robersonville.

Woman's Club In First Fall Meeting

The first meeting of the woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon with 34 attending.

America was sung before the business session began, and Mrs. G. H. Harrison, treasurer, reported $72.99 in the treasury.

On Motion of Mrs. F. J. Margolis and Mrs. John Ward the club decided to sponsor a paint demonstration given by the Martin Supply Company at 10 o'clock, Sept. 26th.

It was decided to adopt a new project for this year, and after discussion the club voted to beautify all the highways leading into Williamston. The motion for the project embodied the idea of a unified effort by each and every member and not by committees.

Another project for the immediate future was turned over to the American Citizenship Department. This committee was requested to appear before the Town Fathers and ask them to zone the town and place public rest rooms at certain intervals to the convenience of out-of-town shoppers.

After the business was concluded the meeting was turned over to the members of the social committee. Mrs. C. G. Crockett, chairman. They had as special guests the faculties of both the grammar and high schools. After the guests were introduced to the club members, the committee served sandwiches, mints and tea. Mrs. W. C. Manning, Jr., played during the tea hour.

Junior Club Holds Its First Meeting

Monday evening at eight o'clock, the Auxiliary of the John Walton Hassell Post held its regular monthly meeting, with Mrs. Charles R. Davenport, the president, presiding. The Junior Auxiliary met at the same time.

Mrs. W. H. Gray, a past president of the organization, in a very impressive manner installed the officers for the ensuing year. The regular business of the meeting was gone into and it was decided to hold future meetings at three o'clock on the second Saturday afternoon of each month. The president outlined plans for the coming year and read out the names of the new committees.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. J. A. Eason entertained at a farewell party Saturday night for her niece, Miss Katherine Turner, who returned to her home in Cheriton, Va., Sunday. The entire lower floor of the Eason home was decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums. During the evening games and dancing was enjoyed and punch was served.

Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Henry Crawford, Misses Mary Taylor and Ruth Manning, who served block ice cream, individual cakes mints and nuts.

Guests present were Misses Mary O'Neal Pope, Mary Warren, Ann Fowden, Ray Leggett, Della Jane Mobley, Millie Biggs, Nancy Mercer, Elizabeth Parker and Nancy Biggs, Stuart and Jim Critcher, Jim Manning, John Miller, Jimmy Watts, J. D. Woolard, Jr., Bennie Weaver, Carlyle Langley, Buddy Weir, Jerry Clark and Billy Mercer.
