Sixteen Local Firms Feature Dollar Days

Special Event To Climax Activities In Trading Center

Special Preparations Made in Promoting Real Trade Event Here

Offering the greatest array of bargains ever seen in this section, Williamston merchants are cooperating to make dollar days—September 19, 20 and 21—the one big trade event of the fall shopping season. Sixteen local firms have already signed up in the big undertaking that is certain to expand Williamston's fast expanding territory and to add to the shopping center's every growing list of satisfied customers.

Special preparations have been carefully handled that the dollar days event might be guaranteed a ready acceptance by thousands throughout the shopping territory. Special invitations, carrying sincere welcomes, are being sent to thousands in these pages today, and sizable throngs are expected here for the three-day period.

Bargains galore are being listed, but limited space makes impossible the complete listings. Hundreds of special offers will be made available to thrifty shoppers in addition to those listed in these pages. Every effort is being made to make this event a truly remarkable and advantageous one to the people of this entire section. The special three-day trade event is certain to climax the early fall trading activities in Williamston where every dollar will do extra duty for the thrifty shopper.

Read the special messages carried in this paper by the cooperating business firms and come to Williamston prepared to actively participate in the section's biggest early fall trading event.

New Shop Offers Special Values

The Harrison Shoppe, next to Williamston's postoffice, is cooperating in the trade festival getting underway here on Thursday of this week. The shop, owned and operated by Mrs. Anna Harrison, is one of the latest additions to the business life of the community.

MOTIVE

Forgetting profits and costs to them, Williamston merchants are making extensive preparations for the biggest dollar-day trade event in the history of the town. Prices have been slaughtered to bring the figures down to an even dollar, and the profit motive has been virtually lost. No greater bargains have ever been offered. day event is to prove to increasing numbers that Williamston is an ideal shopping center, one that offers dependable merchandise under convenient and advantageous circumstances.

Senator Defends Our Way Of Life

Speaking in Charlotte recently, Senator Claude Pepper, able Democratic United States Senator from Florida, defended the American and British way of life against the philosophy of totalitarian nations and declared that Americans "are willing to lay down their economic resources as an obstacle to Hitler and his cruel petty, back-stabbing satellite Mussolini." Should Hitler defeat "brave, courageous Britain," Pepper told a patriotic rally, the United States would find herself with "no big army, no adequate navy, hoping against the dictates of common sense that in some manner we might be spared." He predicted that if Germany should conquer England, Hitler would not wait five years for this country to build a great navy but would challenge this country almost at once.

Progress Exhibit Entries Reported

Raleigh—County progress exhibits, for which $2,000 will be awarded, are expected from Alamance, Dare and Wake Counties at the State Fair at Raleigh, October 8 through 12th. Frank H. Jeter, editor of the State College Extension Service and director of the "County Progress" department of the 1940 exposition, said today. Other entries will be announced within the next week. Progress exhibits will feature development in the field of education, industry and agriculture.

An Old War Debt Repaid

Diana Long, 7, another tiny British war refugee, finds a new pal and a foster home with Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Vanderpool, of Chicago. A debt is thus repaid, for during the last war, Diana's grandmother nursed Vanderpool and two of his pals, war vets, back to health.

Gets First Rural Housing Unit

Vernon Ellis signs the deed for his new home, first to be completed under the Rural Housing Authority program. He deeded the land in Thomas County, Ga., to the authority and will pay $50 a year rent. Looking on are Frank Forester, RHA attorney; Mrs. Ellis, the Ellis' two-year-old son, Junior; and Eugene Ackerman, RHA county director.

Protest Draft

These two women were among the group from Cincinnati, Ohio, who paraded in protest against the Burke-Wadsworth selective training bill in the House. This group is independent of other groups at the capital for the same purpose.

Brighter Outlook For Sweet Potato

With a sizable decrease in production forecasted and with greater activity well advanced in the steel producing areas where it is a vital food in the dinner pail, there is good reason to believe that the sweet potato will command a good price on the markets this fall and winter. Last year prices ranged from 85 to 95 cents a bushel on the Williamston market. This year, farmers are expecting an increase in their income from the potato.

While August rains resulted in a substantial improvement in the prospects for the crop, production will fall about 7,446,000 bushels below the 1939 harvest in the United States, according to reports released this week by the agriculture departments.

Arrangements for maintaining a market in Williamston again this fall are now being made.

Smaller Corn Crop Is Forecasted In State

The 1940 corn yield of 18.5 bushels in this State is expected to be less than last year and the lowest since 1936. Estimated total production of 45,158,000 bushels is 6 per cent less than last year's crop but 6 per cent above the 1929-38 average crop. The reduced corn yield is attributed to the dry, hot weather the latter part of July when the crop was in the crucial maturing stage; however, prospects increased three per cent during August.

Children in Jail

For March, 1940, white children under sixteen in county jails in North Carolina totaled sixty-eight.

Unemployed

One-third of the unemployed in the United States are young people under twenty-five years of age.

Inadequately Housed

About 60 per cent of all farm families are inadequately housed, according to the U. S. Housing Authorities.
