STALLS-PENDELTON

Scotland Neck—The wedding of Miss Neda Pendleton took place in the Methodist Church at Scotland Neck on Saturday, October 19, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The ceremony was performed before the families and a few friends, with the Rev. W. R. Dixon officiating.

The church was simply but beautifully decorated with pines, ferns, candelabra and baskets of chrysanthemums. A short program of wedding music was rendered by the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. H. Cutchin, of Whitakers. The bride entered to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin and the wedding march from Mendelssohn was played during the recessional.

She was given in marriage by her brother, G. Edmund Pendleton, Jr. She wore a dress of soldier blue crepe with full gored skirt and matching bolero jacket with long tight-fitting sleeves and a wine off-the-face hat with short veil. Her accessories were wine, and her flowers were a Colonial bouquet of talisman roses.

Accompanying the bride as her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Alice Mae Pendleton, dressed in a silk gabardine dress made princess style with short jacket trimmed with velvet. Her accessories were black and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

James Williams, of Williamston, attended Mr. Stalls as best man, and ushers were Carroll Jones, of Williamston, and Harry L. Allsbrook, of Portsmouth, Va.

Mr. Stalls is the lovely brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmund Pendleton of Scotland Neck. She received her education in the Scotland Neck High School and Peace Junior College, Raleigh. She is at the present time employed by the Farm Security Administration in the Williamston office.

Mr. Stalls is the son of Mrs. D. D. Stalls and the late Mr. Stalls, of Williamston. He was reared in Williamston, receiving his education in the Williamston High School. He holds a responsible position with the Martin Supply Company in Williamston.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Stalls left for a trip through Virginia, after which they will be at home on Watts Street in Williamston.

Following the rehearsal on Friday night, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, honoring the bridal party and out-of-town guests.
