HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Mary Brown Allgood, Home Service Director, Virginia Electric and Power Company

Halloween Howls are heard again and we plan:

A Barn Party
Bachelor Hamburgers
Onion Rings Mixed Sweet Pickles
Carrot Straws
Brown Sugar Doughnuts
Cider
Coffee

Bachelor Hamburgers
1-2 lbs hamburger steak
1-16 tsp pepper
1 tsp salt
3 cans tomato soup
1 lb American cheese
7 slices Bermuda onion
Mix the ground beef with salt and pepper and shape into seven thick hamburger cakes. Press a slice of onion into top of each. Cut cheese in seven slices and put one on top of each cake. Use electric casserole or covered container in oven. Grease container, put in hamburgers and cover with tomato soup, undiluted. Cover and simmer slowly (300°) until onion is cooked, about 3 hours. Serve hot with toast triangles or rolls.

Brown Sugar Doughnuts
1 c light brown sugar
2 tbsps melted fat
2 eggs
1 c milk
4 tsp baking powder
1-2 tsp salt
3 to 4 c flour

Blend the sugar with fat and add eggs well beaten. To this mixture add alternately the milk and dry ingredients, adding the baking powder and salt to first cup of flour. Roll lightly and cut with doughnut cutter. Fry in hot fat and drain on brown paper. Cool.

Other Halloween recipes:
Jellied Orange Prune Salad
Part 1
1 pkg orange gelatin
1-2 c boiling water
1-2 c ginger ale
1-2 c seedless white grapes
1-2 c diced canned pineapple
Part 2
1 pkg lemon gelatin
1 c boiling water
1 c prune juice
Cream cheese
1 tbsps lemon juice
1-4 tsp salt
1 c cooked, chopped prunes
Lettuce
Prepare Part 1 by dissolving the gelatin in the boiling water. Add ginger ale and cool. When ready to congeal add fruit. Pour in shallow pan to about 3-4 inch thickness. Chill thoroughly. Spread top with thin layer of cream cheese.
Prepare Part 2 in same manner. Place on top of cheese and chill. Slice and serve on lettuce.

Nut Crack Cookies
(Nut Crack Night was an old name for Halloween.)
3 c flour
3 tsp baking powder
1 c shortening
1-4 c brown sugar
1-2 tsp vanilla
2 eggs
1-2 c chopped nuts
Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening, gradually add sugar and vanilla. Beat in eggs, one at a time, and then the flour. Shape in rolls about 2 inches in diameter and wrap in wax paper. Chill thoroughly. Slice thin and put on unbaked cookie sheet, sprinkle each with chopped nuts and bake at 400° for 8 to 10 minutes.

Honor Recent Bride

Miss Ruth Cullipher And Daniel Boone Wed In Robersonville Ceremony

Miss Ruth Evelyn Cullipher and Rev. Daniel C. Boone were married in the Robersonville Methodist Church last evening at 7:45 o'clock by Dr. L. C. Larkin, the wedding ceremony preceding a revival service conducted by Dr. Larkin in the church of which the groom is pastor. The ceremony, witnessed by a large congregation including many friends of the contracting parties, was marked for its simplicity.

Mrs. Boone is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cullipher of this county. She was graduated from the Everetts and Robersonville schools and did post-graduate work in the Robersonville commercial school.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boone, of Suffolk, Va. He was graduated from Elon College and studied at Duke University. Entering the ministry about ten years ago he has held pastorates in this State and Virginia. He is a nephew of Revs. B. F. and J. J. Boone, prominent members of the North Carolina conference. The young minister is now stationed in Robersonville from which point he serves several churches in this county.

Rev. and Mrs. Boone will be at home in the parsonage, Robersonville.

Visits Here Yesterday
Mrs. Russell Martin, of Farm Life, visited here yesterday.

Mrs. Etheridge Entertains

Mrs. Ernest Etheridge was hostess at a series of lovely bridge parties Wednesday afternoon and evening. For both parties a color scheme of orange and black was carried out and the halloween motif was used in the tallies, cloths, decorations and the sweet course of chocolate ice cream, decorated with pumpkins and cakes. Each plate had a miniature orange and black gum drop corsage. During the progressions the hostess served orange punch and peanuts.

In the afternoon Mrs. W. I. Skinner captured the high score award; Mrs. V. J. Spivey, second high; Mrs. Henry Harrison, low, and the traveling prize went to Mrs. George Whitehurst, Mrs. Ethel Watts, of Huntingtown, W. Va., received a guest prize.
