

Former Williamston Grads Now Playing With Mars Hill Team

Anderson Twins, Jojo Thigpen and J. E. Boykin 'Make the Grade'

Mars Hill—(Special)—Coach Roberts' gridiron machine at Mars Hill College boasts four former members of the Williamston High School football team.

The candidates are Martin Anderson, playing halfback and Arthur Anderson, end; Jo Jo Thigpen, center, and J. E. Boykin, back.

The Anderson twins are exceptionally good players. Martin not only carries the ball well, but is an extremely successful blocking back. Arthur Anderson, playing end, has improved this season, to add to his already fine ability. In fact he is considered a probable starter of the Mars Hill eleven.

Jo Thigpen is not only a fine and accurate center, but on defense, he backs up the line well. He tackles hard, and can take it himself.

J. E. Boykin is one of the best reserve passers and kickers on the squad. From the appearance of his present backfield ability he will see plenty of action next year.

Out of the four conference games Mars Hill has played so far this year they have won three and tied one.

Martin and Arthur Anderson are twins, and the sons of O. S. Anderson. They played two years on the Williamston team, coached by Sam Edwards. Jo Thigpen is the son of J. F. Thigpen and J. E. Boykin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boykin. Sr. Thigpen played two years under Coach Edwards and Boykin played one year.

Local Boy Praise At Darlington Prep

Ned Cunningham, of Williamston, is earning his spurs and a regular berth on the Darlington Tigers at Darlington School, Rome, Ga. In his first year on the Tiger squad, young Cunningham has proved himself a capable reserve end and has been called on in every game to share the flank post with a letterman of last year's Mid-South Association championship eleven. His play is characterized by alertness and aggressiveness.

The Tiger have won their fifth consecutive victory in as many starts and have not yielded a score to any opponent. They are defending their association championship and are tied with Baylor, of Chattanooga, for first place honors thus far.

COTTON plays an important part in building CONCRETE ROADS. ABOUT ten million pounds of cotton is used annually by the cement industry for sacking cement. Heavy cotton mats are used now for "curing" freshly placed concrete, protecting it from the summer sun while hardening. 1,200,000 sq. yds. of these heavy mats have been used in the last few years. Concrete road construction offers a vast market for your cotton and besides concrete is the real low cost road, superior in durability, safety and economy.
