TICE-ALLIGOOD

In a wedding of impressive simplicity and beauty, Miss Dorothy Mae Alligood, of Washington, became the bride of Woodrow Tice, Wednesday afternoon at five-thirty in the First Methodist Church, Washington, with Rev. D. A. Clark officiating.

The altar background of stately palms was flanked by tall standards filled with white chrysanthemums. Cathedral candles in seven-branch candelabra were placed on either side of the floral arrangements and formed a center archway.

Prior to the wedding, Mr. David Bell played a program of nuptial music which included Salut d'Amour, The Rosary, Cavatina and InterMezzo. Mr. Benjamin McCafferty sang Because, and I Love You Truly. Trauery music was played during the ceremony and the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March were used for the processional and recession.

Ushers were Oscar Anderson, Jr., and C. G. Crockett, Jr. Miss Thelma Elizabeth Cox, of Washington, maid of honor, wore wine crepe with matching accessories. Her arm bouquet was of pink carnations and orchid pom-pom chrysanthemums tied with orchid ribbon.

The bride entered the church with her father by whom she was given in marriage and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Irving Griffin.

Mrs. Tice wore for her wedding a dress of soldier blue crepe with wine accessories. Her bridal bouquet was made up of white carnations, baby breath and fever few tied with white bridal satin and tulle. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flavius Alligood, of Washington, and attended the schools there.

Mr. Tice is the son of Mr. Noah Thomas Tice and the late Mrs. Tice, of Williamston. He attended the schools in this county and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is now employed by Standard Fertilizer Company here.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home with Mrs. John D. Bowen, West Main Street, Williamston. After the rehearsal Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Alligood entertained at the Knotty Pine Inn for the bridal party.

No announcements will be mailed in Williamston.
