Woman's Club To Meet Tomorrow

A special feature program will feature the regular meeting of the Woman's Club here tomorrow afternoon, it was announced today by a representative of the organization.

Advancing the Christmas theme, the program lists two guest speakers and several musical numbers. Very little business is scheduled for consideration at the meeting which will center around the following program:

"Star Spangled Banner," club; three selections by the second grade rhythm band, Miss Mary Benson, teacher; safety talk by Sergeant L. L. Jackson of the N. C. Highway Patrol; instrumental solo, Miss Grace Talton; a Christmas play by the second grade; Christmas carol, club; Red Cross talk by Miss Helen Bryant Chamberlain, of Kinston. Miss Chamberlain's talk will deal with volunteer refugee work.

The members of the Junior Woman's Club have been invited and a large attendance upon the meeting is expected.
