

Martin Quint To Meet "Flying Swedes" Here

Stellar Exhibition At High School Gym Monday Night

Swede Troupe Is Made Up of Five Brothers And One Pretty Sister

Basketball fans of this section are in for a real treat next Monday night when the "Flying Swedes" and the Williamston Martins meet in an exhibition in the local high school gymnasium.

The "Flying Swedes" personnel lists five brothers and one sister, and is listed as the only brother and sister basketball troupe touring the United States. During their four seasons of travel over this country, they have met a majority of the leading professional and independent squads and have come out on top in a majority of the contests.

Tallest of this traveling court family is Alfred, who stands 6 feet 2 inches, and is listed at guard. With his long arms and enormous hands

NOT THE SAME

Last season the Williamston Martins tangled with the Swedes in a three-game series, with the locals being victorious in two of the encounters. The Martins lost the initial game Christmas night, 1939, by a score of 39-36. In Edenton they walloped the traveling champs 33-15, and at Washington, staged a great show to win 34-33.

The team Williamston is scheduled to play here next Monday night is entirely different—even in name. The Swedes of last season were called Olson's Terrible Swedes, while this year's model is the "Flying Swedes", strictly a brother and sister affair.

he throws and handles basketballs as though they were baseballs. Harold, the other guard, stands 5 feet 11, and is said to be the trick artist of the group. Howard, shortest member of the team who stands a mere 5 feet ten, will start at forward, and he is expected to display unerring accuracy at making difficult shots from the corner. The other forward, Fred, is 6 feet tall, and every bit as good as the others. At center, and the key man in the Swedes' attack, is Frank, who also stands 6 feet in the air. Like every center, Frank has a specialty shot which makes the fans admire his unusual technique. And last, but not least, is their pretty sister, Margaret, who, despite the fact that she is a young woman, asks no quarter on the court even against men and will show the Martins a few pointers on how to shoot goals.

In the line-up for the Martins will be Pap Diem, Breezy Beard, Bosko Anderson, Fenner Wallace and Jack Manning, along with Shorty Corey and Skinny Skinner. Little has to be said about the ability of this team for several professional traveling squads offered both Pap Diem and Breezy Beard jobs, which is ranking their ability among the best in the business. Pap plays an unusually fine floor game and is adept in trick passing, while Beard's uncanny eye
