Happenings In The Farm Life School

By LALA SMITHWICK

Last Friday night the Parents-Teachers Association met and discussed plans for a gymnasium. A number of donations have been made, but many more must be made before the project becomes a reality.

Dr. Williams, county physician, spent a few days in the school last week examining the children in the first, second, third and fourth grades. There are only a few cases of influenza reported in the school and attendance is normal.

Friday, January 17, the sixth grade sponsored a short patriotic program. Miss Cook, the sixth grade teacher, assigned the parts and directed the play.

On January 17, at 7:30 in the Williamston gymnasium, the Farm Life boys and girls won a twin bill from the Bath basketball teams. Leona Griffin led the home girls, with 11 points, while Cutter led the Bath Pirates with four points. Bruce Peele led the Farm Life boys with 10 points, and Garlin led the Pirates with 9 points. The local girls won by a score of 13 to 8, the boys won, 27-19.

The seniors are very busy formulating plans for their class annual. The following superlatives have been selected by the class:

Prettiest girl, Vera Pearl Williams.

Most handsome boy, Bruce Peele.

Best athlete (girl), Leona Griffin.

Best athlete (boy), Benny Daniels.

Neatest (girl), Eloise Hodges.

Neatest (boy), Robert Whitley.

Most talkative, Carlyle Manning.

Most studious, Vera Ruth Griffin.

Biggest pest, Harry Peele.

Laziest, Cecil Brown.

Most versatile, Vera Pearl Williams.

Wittiest, Harry Peele.

Biggest flirt, Lala Smithwick.

Most popular (boy), Cecil Brown.

Most popular (girl), Leona Griffin.

Most conceited, Carlyle Manning.

Best leader, Lala Smithwick.

The dramatics club is sponsoring a playwriting contest. The prize-winning play will be presented in chapel.

Mrs. Manning's grades presented a health wedding during the chapel period last Friday afternoon. Prior to the ceremony appropriate "wedding" music was rendered. The characters in the wedding were: bride, happiness, Mary Ola Lilley; groom, health, J. R. Williams; best man, Mr. Bean, Harry Wiggins; maid of honor, Miss Lemon, Dorothy Perry; minister, James Harrell Ellis; train bearer, Miss Tomato, Della Frances Revels; soloist, Miss Rhubarb, Rachel Gurkin; bride's mother, Miriam Peele; bride's father, Willie Hardison; groom's mother, Helen Daniel; groom's father, Herman Hopkins; ushers, Mr. Turnip, Lindsay Lilley; Mr. Celery, Dallas Griffin; guests, Dr. Milk, Alfonza Jones; Mrs. Milk, Frances Roberson; Mr. Squash, Duell Van Heath; Mrs. Squash, Gladys Perry; Mrs. Steak, Nancy V. Lilley; Mr. Fish, Wilson Wiggins; Mrs. Fish, Frances Hardison; Mr. Potato, Frances E. Lilley; Mrs. Potato, Bessie Mae Boddard; Mr. Cereal, David Griffin; Mrs. Cereal, Myrtle Simpson; Lazy Sam, Jesse Hodges.

The quilt which the fourth and fifth grades are making is nearing completion. Chances are being sold by members of the class at a very small price.

An Appreciation

Our Friends And Customers Are Numerous — And We Are Ever Grateful For Their Patronage . . .

On the cold winter days and nights we maintain a warm, comfortable place for our customers and friends, and we are always delighted to have them spend their leisure moments in our store among friends. This invitation is extended without obligating anyone to buy.

A Thief in Our Midst

LAST SATURDAY, JANUARY 25,

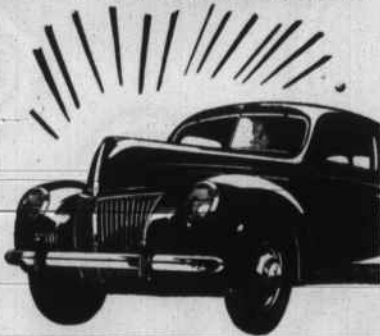

A gentleman . . . at least one surely thinks so . . . while looking around our store, tore open a case of Camel cigarettes and lifted out two cartons or 400 cigarettes.

We do hope this gentleman will smoke to his heart's content . . . also hereafter. In his opinion he may feel that he did a great deed, but his conscience, if he has one, will not agree with that opinion. You may sleep well at night but this act will dwell in your memory and remain with you until the end. The writer believes he knows the gentleman. Thank you.
