University of North Carolina Band

Making a tour of eastern North Carolina this week, the University of North Carolina band will appear in concert in the high school auditorium here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Directed by Earl Slocum, the crack University band includes in its repertoire all 60 of the selections used in the State and National music contests last year, and the plan is for each high school conductor to choose the numbers for the local concert. The Tar Heel musicians, who are best known perhaps for their appearances at Carolina football games, also appeared in New York, Winston-Salem and Charlottesville last fall, and give a series of concert appearances each spring.
