District President Speaks To Local Club Wednesday

Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Others Address Regular Session Of The Club

The Woman's Club meeting Wednesday afternoon was featured by a citizenship program under the direction of the citizenship committee, Mrs. Joel Muse, chairman.

After the minutes were read and the treasurer's report made, Mrs. J. B. Joyner, of Farmville, district president, made a talk about the projects and program of the state organization.

After this, the president, Mrs. Wheeler Martin, turned the meeting over to the citizenship department.

The bugle call was given by Collin Peel, Jr., and Conrad Getsinger, Boy Scouts. Mrs. Muse led the invocation and the club sang America. After this, Mr. Ray Goodman, chairman of the Martin County draft board, made a talk on the workings of the board, and then made an appeal to the women to aid in defending our country as he said it is as much the duty of the country as a whole, as it is that of the boys who are being sent to camps. He closed with an appropriate reading, "I'm Glad I'm an American." This called attention to how fortunate we are but he asked, "Will we continue to be so fortunate?"

Miss Mary O'Neal Pope, accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Manning, Jr., sang, "God Bless America," which was much enjoyed.

Then Mrs. Joyner made a very thought-provoking speech on Citizenship. She said that the time had passed when a woman's place was only in the home. There are so many outside interests that children do not spend as much time at home as they used to and it's the duty of women to take part in and see that those outside interests are what they should be. She gave education its place in making life what it should be and stressed that it should begin at the mother's knee. Another thought that parents do not take seriously enough was the value of the home training on a child's life. She said that every word that parents utter before their children, has its influence on their lives.

Mrs. Joyner then defined patriotism and asked her hearers not to get it mixed up with sentimentality. This wrong conception may lead to trouble and the only way to love your country is to love the individual enough to give him the same chance for happiness and a full life that you have. She called attention to the slums, the poverty and ignorance in our country and said that it was a weak link and that our country as a whole is no stronger than its weakest link.

The remarks made by Mrs. Joyner were received seriously by the club members as they well should have been because they contained plenty of food for thought.

After repeating the allegiance to the flag, led by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, of Farmville, who was also a guest for the afternoon, the meeting was adjourned. The social committee served tea with sandwiches and wafers.

Seniors To Stage Play Next Tuesday

The cast has been completed for the senior class play, "Mumbo-Jumbo," a three-act mystery farce to be presented in the high school auditorium on March 18. A number of the actors will be remembered for their parts in the junior play last year, "Hobgoblin House," which at the time was proclaimed as the "last word in mysteries." According to the seniors, "Mumbo-Jumbo" will be even more exciting.

The central characters, Dick Reynolds and Pee-Wee Smith, two ham-scarum college youths, will be played by James Willis Ward and Billy Mercer. Elizabeth Parker will portray a beautiful young woman under the strange spell of Doctor Omahandra, played by Melburn Hardison. Ruth Ward will be a Voodoo witch doctor; David Hardison, a mysterious blind man. Mary Charles Godwin will depart from her usual role of colored mammy to play the part of Twenty, a bumpkinish country lass. Charles Coltrane, as Sheriff Lem Marblehead, of Milburn County, and Daisy Peaks, as his female rival — Sheriff Emma Burpee, of Hopetown — will add to the amusement by their bickering about the right to jurisdiction over the murder.

Others in the cast include Leona Davenport as Sarah Reynolds, Dick's aunt; S. C. Griffin, as Uncle John Reynolds; Sarah Taylor as Peaches Greeding, a gold-digging chorus girl; Gerald James, as a hard-boiled traffic cop; Billy Peele, a timid young man, and Mary Kate Swann, his frightened mother; Anne Fowden, the meddlesome little niece of Sheriff Emma Burpee.

"Mumbo-Jumbo" is another name for Voodoo, or black magic. The setting is the country home of the Reynolds in New England, but that is the least exciting fact of the whole play. It has murders, throbbing African Voodoo rites, a hidden fortune — all the elements of a really hair-raising mystery. But it has also plenty of comedy, the best of which is Bill Mercer's impersonation of James Willis' wife.

Proceeds from the play will be used for a gift to the school from the Class of 1941.

Uncle Natchel says:

WE BUYS DE NATCHEL KIND, 'CAUSE NATCHEL THINGS IS BEST

Right you are, Uncle Natchel — Chilean Nitrate of Soda is "natchel" and it's a wise plan to rely on natural things.

Natural Chilean Nitrate is good for every crop you grow. Its quick-acting nitrate, plus the many "vitamin elements" which it contains, help to insure better quality and larger yield.

Use it in mixed fertilizer before planting, and as top dressing or side-dressing. And use it regularly — that is the way to get full benefit of its fertilizing and soil-improving qualities.
