

Seven Martin Boys Enter CCC Camps

Seven Martin County young men, four white and three colored, enrolled in the Civilian Conservation Corps following physical examinations given them at Washington Wednesday morning. It could not be learned definitely where the boys would be stationed, but they are expected to go either to Manteo or New Holland.

There were openings for five white youths but only four reported, and the authorities accepted an extra colored boy from this county.

The names of the enrollees are: white, Archie Brown, Hardison, of Oak City; Marshall Gray, Moore, of Jamesville; Ben Bullock, of Robersonville; and Hubert Alton Bunting, of Parmele; colored, Willie D. Keys and Harry Barnes, both of Williamston, and George Thomas Jones, of Parmele.

Equalization Board Clears Its Desk of Current Complaints

The first round in the battle of taxes is now considered over, and little will be heard from the tax front during the long summer months ahead. But the coming of fall and the distribution of tax notices will likely renew the battle. But the authorities are not crossing their bridges before they get to them and beginning next Monday they hope to settle down for a long series of meetings with only routine matters claiming their attention. "There's nothing much on the calendar and we are looking for an uneventful meeting," Board Chairman R. L. Perry and Clerk J. Sam Getsinger both said when asked what would be before the regular session next Monday.

Glee Club Sings For The Kivans Here Last Night

The Williamston high school glee club, under the direction of Miss Kathryn Mewborn, gave a special program at the Kiwanis Club last night.

The program, from beginning to end, was thoroughly enjoyed by the Kiwanians. A mixed chorus of 42 voices singing "Water Boy," was particularly appreciated by the club members.

Town Commissioners To Meet Next Monday Night

The regular meeting of the local town commissioners next Monday night is scheduled to handle more than routine business. Some solution to the street improvement problem created by an order transferring WPA forces to a road-widening project will be sought. Date for a town nominating convention will have to be set and a registration of voters ordered, to mention a few of the matters awaiting the board's official attention.

Green Wave Nine Gains Victory Over Scotland Neck, 6-5

Local To Play Windsor There Today and at Edenton Monday Afternoon

Williamston High's baseball nine batted out a thrilling victory before a record high school game crowd here yesterday against Scotland Neck, 6-5. The game was scheduled to go 7 innings but had to go one extra since the game was tied up 5-5 all at the end of the seventh. The Green Wave scored first in the second inning when J. Ward batted in Jones from second who had been walked. Scotland Neck came back in the fourth with three tallies to hold the lead to the fifth inning. In the fifth, J. Ward started a 4-run rally with a single followed by a double by Billie Peele and a triple by Clifton Ward. Scotland Neck tallied in the sixth and seventh to tie up the game. In the last of the eighth H. Wynne opened with a clean single to left field, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and finally scored on Jones' fly to left field.

The losers binged out 12 hits for their five runs but fine pitching by Garland Wynne helped the locals out of the tight spots. This was Garland's second victory in three starts. Williamston tallied 7 hits with C. Ward, J. Ward and H. Wynne contributing two each; Peele accounting for the other.

The Green Wave plays at Windsor today and at Edenton on Monday. They will return to their back yard here next Wednesday against Edenton—this game was originally scheduled for Tuesday. They will meet Robersonville for the final home game on Friday.

second instances. He was fined $50 for carrying a concealed weapon, and adjudged guilty in the case charging an assault with a deadly weapon he was fined $25 and taxed with the cost. He appealed to the higher court, and his bond was fixed at $100.

The case charging Paul Harrell with violating the liquor laws was continued until next Monday.

Charged with violating the liquor laws, Reuben Pettiford, Almond J. Williams, Reuben Pettiford and Henry Combs pleaded not guilty. Combs was adjudged guilty and each of them was fined $10 and taxed with one-third of the court costs.

Callie Little, pleading guilty in the case charging him with violating the liquor laws, was sentenced to jail for two months and taxed with the case costs. The jail sentence was suspended upon payment of the cost and assured good behavior for one year from date.

The case charging Willie Owens with violating the liquor laws, was continued until next Monday.

Pleading guilty in the case charging him with carrying a concealed weapon, Matthew Davis was sentenced to the roads for a term of three months.

Russell Brown, charged in two cases with violating the motor vehicle laws and having no license, had his case continued until next Monday. Bond in the sum of $100 was required by the court.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly and violating the liquor laws, Oscar Whitley was fined $15 and taxed with the cost.

Jasper Roebuck was in the court again this week for assaulting a female. He pleaded not guilty, but the evidence was ruled against him and he was sentenced to the roads for a term of twelve months. He appealed and bond was fixed in the sum of $200.

in the Highlands, "Old Hundred," "Faith of Our Fathers," "America," "The Soldier in the Colored Brigade," "The Revolutionary Tea," "Dixie," "Ho, For Carolina," "The Star Spangled Banner," "God Bless America."

Similar pageants have been presented with marked success in other county schools during the past few days, and the public is assured that the events are entertaining.

Fugitive Arrested In Virginia City

Samuel Williams, young Negro man, wanted in this county on two bastardy counts, was arrested in Portsmouth this week and was returned here yesterday by Sheriff C. B. Roebuck and Deputy Collector Jack Hinton of the State Department of Revenue. Williams is scheduled to appear before Judge W. H. Coburn in the recorder's court where he, the alleged father, will likely face two illegitimate children Monday.

Williams' case commanded much attention here the early part of last January soon after he was called before the court on a bastardy charge. That case was nolprossed with leave, and he was facing a similar charge in a second case on Monday, January 6th, when he eluded Constable Charlie Moore and escaped to the Virginia city. It was stated at the time that Williams asked the constable to accompany him from the courthouse to a friend's home where he was to get some money. According to other declarations in the story Williams asked the officer to be seated in a front room, to make himself comfortable and read a detective magazine while he contacted his friend in another part of the house. Leaving his hat with the officer, Williams cleared port and was not heard from until this week when he was arrested in Portsmouth.

Williams, expressing surprise as a result of his arrest, declared to Sheriff Roebuck that it was his understanding that he (Williams) had settled the case by the alleged payment of $10 to Charlie Moore who was at the time serving as township constable.

was dealt the English when they learned that Bengasi had been captured by Germans, the event making it appear that the Nazi forces in Africa are far larger than many believe. The British say they withdrew, and that the German claims meant little.

High Hungarian officials were said to be fleeing the country today rather than bow down to Hitler's new demands for a closer cooperation.

Education Board To Name Committees Next Monday

Meeting here next Monday morning, the county board of education will name local committeemen for the next term and handle other business pertaining to the schools.

Mrs. Sherrod Corey, of Griffins, entered the local hospital yesterday for treatment. Her condition was said to be much improved and her return home is expected within the next day or two.

Five Plead Guilty In Federal Court

Charged with conspiracy, five men, allegedly implicated in a violation of the Internal Revenue Act in this county, pleaded guilty before Judge I. M. Meekins in federal court at Washington last Tuesday afternoon. Two witnesses had been heard in the case when the defendants, W. I. Beddard, George Davenport, Oscar Woolard, Jimmie Griffin and Edward E. Ashby, entered pleas of guilty.

Judge Meekins sentenced the quintet to prison for two year terms, but released all of them on probation.

Ten other defendants from this county face Judge Meekins during the term, but several of the cases were continued until next October.
