Poultry Income Is Reported Lower

Raleigh- A reduction of 20 per ent in cash income from the sale of chickens in 1940 compared with 1939 was reported by Russell P. Hanwith dy, junior statistician of the State Department of Agriculture.

North Carolina farmers sold 7,-289,000 chickens last year compared with 9.255,000 in 1939," he said, basing his information on a Federal-State Crop Report. "Chickens sold last year returned producers an av-erage price of 50 cents a head for a total cash income of $3,644,000 com-pared with the 1939 cash income of $4,628,000. The value of chickens consumed in the farm household was estimated at $5,682,000, or five per cent under the 1939 value. The 1940 total gross income from chickens (which includes cash income from sales plus the value of home consumption was estimated at $9,326,000, or about 12 per cent under the previous year. Among the South Atlantic states last year, North Carolina ranked second in the number of chickens raised.

"North Carolina farmers raised 20,678,000 chickens last year and of this number, 55 per cent was con-sumed in the farm household, 35 per cent sold, eight per cent lost and two per cent kept for breeding purposes," Handý said. 'Egg production in the state totaled 670,000,000 last year. showing an annual average of 83 eggs per bird for the 8,121,000 heits and pullets on hand January 1, 1940 Of the total eggs produced last year 51.3 per cent was sold; 45.7 per cent consumed in the farm household and three per cent used for farm hatch-

Because when you buy a new car this spring you want one that will see you through many a summer.

So while you're trading it's good sense to trade up - up to something solidly good through and through.

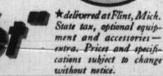

Trade up, for instance, to the FIREBALL power of Buick's more efficient valvein-head straight-eight.

Trade up to the thrift of Compound Carburction[†] - exclusively Buick's, and as much as 10% to 15% more economical of gasoline than last year.
