JAMS, JELLIES AND CONSERVES

There's nothing more satisfying to the hostess than a well-stocked cupboard with row after row of delicious jams and preserves. Nothing adds more to that Sunday night supper than hot biscuits with fig preserves or grape conserve. These sweet spreads are very simple to make if recipes are closely followed. Here are a few of our favorites.

Fig Preserves
Select slightly under-ripe fruit. Place in bowl, cover with boiling water to which alum has been added (2 tsp to 1 qt water). Allow to cool, drain fruit and remove skins, if desired, do not remove stem. Weigh and use 1 lb. figs and 3-4 lb. sugar. Place in alternate layers in large preserving kettle. Allow to stand in ice box overnight. In morning add lemon juice and ginger root according to taste, bring to boil slowly and simmer until figs are clear and can be pierced easily with a straw. Pack figs in jars and continue cooking syrup until thick, pour over fruit and seal tightly.

Orange Marmalade
6 oranges
3 lemons
Remove and discard the thin yellow rind from half of the oranges. Cut oranges and lemons into very thin slices, and for every measure of fruit add three measures of water. Let stand overnight. Cook until fruit disintegrates. Measure and add an equal volume of sugar. Cook to 220 degrees F. The finished marmalade should have the consistency of jelly. A combination of lemon and orange give a more delicate flavor than orange alone.

Seppernong Grape Butter
Put grapes on with barely enough water to cover. Cook until soft, strain through colander to remove seeds and skins. Add 1 pint sugar to 1 pint pulp and juice. Cook until thick, stirring frequently. Just before removing from range, add cinnamon, cloves and spice to taste.

Grape Conserve
4 pts. seeded grapes
5 c sugar
2 c English walnuts (broken into small pieces)
Cook grapes and sugar together as for jam. The juice of 1 orange and the peel of 1-2 orange, cut in small pieces, may be added for variation. Add nut meats 5 minutes before removing from the fire. Seal in clean, hot jars.

Grape Jelly
Pick over, wash and remove stems of grapes. Put into a preserving kettle and heat to boiling point, mash and boil slowly 30 minutes. Strain through a coarse strainer, then allow juice to drip through a double thickness of cheese-cloth or a jelly bag. Measure, bring to boiling point and boil 5 minutes. Add an equal quantity of heated sugar, boil 3 minutes, skim and pour into glasses. Cover with melted paraffin and keep in a cool, dry place.

Wedding Plans Announced
Miss Dorothy Bruton Hurley, whose marriage to William Clarence Morse, Jr., will take place on Friday afternoon at 5:30, has announced the following wedding plans:

The ring ceremony will be performed by the bride-elect's father, Rev. Bernard T. Hurley. She will be given in marriage by her brother, Bernard T. Hurley, Jr., and her sister, Miss Ruth Hurley, will be maid of honor. Misses Glennie Morse, of Elizabeth City, sister of the groom-elect, and Lucy Wynne, of Washington, will be bridesmaids. The groomsmen, all of Elizabeth City, will be Andrew J. Bailey, Walter Cahoon, Forest Dunstan and Wiley Coppersmith, Jr. The best man will be William Thomas Jackson, Jr., of Elizabeth City. The vestible ushers will be W. H. Harrison and W. M. Manning. Mrs. W. K. Parker will play the wedding music and a vested choir will sing, assisted by Mrs. James Smith, as soloist.
