

Happenings In The Oak City Schools

The next meeting will be held the last Thursday in October. A large crowd will be expected since we will be off daylight time and most of the farmers' farm work will be over.

The Dramatic Club, sponsored by Miss Meads, had its first meeting on Friday. Officers were elected and dues were set for the year. Bryan Haislip was elected president; Peggy Hopkins, vice president, and Rebecca Worsley, secretary-treasurer. Dues are 25 cents per year. Gladys Mizelle was elected chairman of a program committee with Bill Tyson and Margaret Bunn as helpers.

Colors were chosen for the senior class Friday morning when their second meeting was held. The class colors are purple and old gold; the class flower, tulip, and the mascot, Neil Mallory. Rufus Manning, Hilda Perkins and Eloise Christenberry were elected a committee to draw up senior privileges.

Mr. Suggs, science and math teacher who has been called by the Army will leave Wednesday. Everyone who has known him will miss him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ainsley visited their son, Ira C. Ainsley, this week-end. He is recovering from an appendicitis operation at a Norfolk hospital.

The commercial department is crowded just now. Not enough typewriters for pupils enrolled. Quite a lot of interest is being shown at the beginning. We hope it continues.

IN MEMORY

In memory of our son, James Wilbur Woolard, who died Oct. 1, 1940.

Dear Wilbur, you left us so bad
One year ago today,
And tears of sorrow fill our eyes,
As we think of you away.

We've missed the sound of your footsteps,
And your voice, since you have gone;

And though we no longer see you,
In our minds you still live on.

We grieve for you in silence,
And few eyes have seen us weep,
But many a bitter tear is shed
While others are asleep.

Today recalls to our memory,
Our dear one laid to rest,
But we who still remember
Are the ones who loved you best.

A loving father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Woolard,
Washington, N. C.
