HUDDY-HIGH
Miss Christine High and Bernard Edward Huddy were married in a private ceremony at Fort Bragg last Friday afternoon. Rev. W. L. Loy, of Bailey, pastor of the Middlesex Methodist Church, officiated, the vows being spoken in the presence of a few friends at Station Hospital No. 3, Ward 384. The couple were to have been married in Middlesex, but plans were changed immediately on account of the slight illness of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by S. F. High, Jr., a cousin, of Middlesex. Private Calman Greenfield, of New York and Fort Bragg, was best man.

The bride was attired in a dress of heavenly blue with dark blue accessories and a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. O. C. Holland, dame of honor and sister of the bride, of Middlesex, wore a dress of dusty pink with black accessories and a corsage of pastel flowers.

Mrs. Huddy is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. G. High. She attended Duke University and was the first nurse graduated from the school of nursing of the University. She completed special work in the Public Health Nursing School, division of the College of William and Mary, Richmond. Coming here when the Martin County Health Department was first established, she faithfully served the county for two years or until she was forced by illness into temporary retirement. During her stay here and in Martin County she made many lasting friendships, and while it was hoped she would be able to return employment was accepted in Raleigh where she is now night supervisor of the Wake County Sanatorium.

Mr. Huddy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huddy, of Brooklyn, attended the high schools in New York and New Jersey and the Essex County Vocational School. He did undergraduate work at Paterson State College, Paterson, New Jersey, and was a member of the Essex County Democratic Committee. For three years he served as laboratory technician for the Schering Corporation in Bloomfield, resigning that position to enter the country's armed services. At present he is stationed with the 47th Infantry, Medical Detachment, 9th Division, Fort Bragg.

Those attending the ceremony were, Mrs. E. C. Powell, Mrs. W. S. Williams, Mrs. Pet High, Edward Kemp, and Mrs. S. F. High, Jr., all of Middlesex; Miss Anne Henshaw Gardner, of Charlotte, and Captain D. F. Hever and Nurse 2nd Lt. Carmen Brackel, of Fort Bragg.

WATERS-BATEMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Garney B. Bateman, of Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Estelle, to Dallas Gaylord Waters, of Fort Bragg and Dardens. Mr. Waters is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Waters, of Dardens. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Leaves for Wake Forest
Burras Critcher, Jr., left today to enroll for the second semester at Wake Forest College after spending a few days here with his parents.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB
Miss Anne Getsinger was hostess Tuesday night to her bridge club in the home of Mrs. Bill Howell.

Three tables were arranged for the game and the guests enjoyed four progressions. During the evening punch and nuts were served. Mrs. Howell won high score prize and Miss Irene James was given a consolation prize.

Later in the evening strawberry shortcake was served to the following members of the club: Misses Bolton Cowen, Irene James, Marie Griffin, Marjorie Lindsley, Evelyn Lilley, Lorene Weaver, Mary Rodgers and Mamie Clyde Taylor, and Mesdames Bill Howell, Woodrow Tice, G. V. Flowers and Oswald Stalls.

ENTERTAINS CLUB
Mrs. T. B. Brandon entertained the Thursday night bridge club at her home on Grace Street last evening.

The guests enjoyed an evening of bridge after which the hostess served a delicious sweet course with cake. Mrs. David Hix won the guest prize, and Mrs. Leman Barnhill won the club prize.

The following members were present: Mesdames W. C. Manning, Leman Barnhill, Ray Goodman, E. P. Cunningham, Roy Gurganus, W. K. Parker, James Manning, Wigg Watts. Special guests of the club were Mesdames David Hix, K. D. Worrell, C. B. Clark and Frank Margolis.
