

Religious Leaders Coming To County

Among the nationally known speakers who will visit Martin County churches in the near future are the following: Mr. S. S. Williams, of South America, will speak at Robersonville First Sunday night in March. Mr. E. K. Higdon at Hassell Sunday evening, March 8th, and Miss Faith McCracken, at Everetts Christian church Tuesday evening, March 10th, at 8 o'clock.

A fellowship meeting of Christian Church representatives of Eastern North Carolina will be held next Friday at the Gordon Street Christian Church in Kinston. Meeting will last from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

A similar area meeting will be held in Winston-Salem March 12th for the western half of the State. Many representatives from Martin will attend the Kinston meet next Friday.

Japs Encountering Strong Opposition In March To South

Some observers are led by this action to believe that the Japs will swerve from their course, skip Australia, and proceed with its half of the Axis world encirclement plan. However, Australia is still pessimistic, and possibly plans for defense of that region will be discussed when the Allied war council meets in Sydney over the weekend-end.

While little credence is attached to the report, the Germans are said to have abandoned all plans of conducting more blitz air attacks on the British Isles. It was claimed that the results were not worth the cost.

In this country, wardens and high-ranking military men are not yet certain that the Los Angeles air raid alarm was a fluke or the work of fifth columnists operating commercial planes. No planes were shot down in the blistering anti-aircraft fire, and the episode is added to the mysteries of this war.

The battle of greed goes on in Washington unabated. The Farm Bloc is still working to add about a billion dollars to the annual food bill while management supported by the National Association of Manufacturers and puppets of southern industry, is trying to enrich itself at the expense of the working masses. Late reports indicate that the House today will pass a bill eliminating hour limitations and overtime pay, but there is some doubt if the sacrifice asked of labor will ever be reflected in the tax bill of the masses. The Office of Civilian Defense is under fire again. This time it is being called upon to answer for the alleged misuse of funds. Senator Norris is asking dollar-a-year men who are interested in chemical trusts why alcohol cannot be made for the war effort from huge wheat and corn surpluses and relieve the sugar shortage.

Small Child Found Dead In Bed Last Wednesday

Charlie Beacham, three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Beacham, was found dead in his crib at the Beacham home near here early last Wednesday morning. The tot had been dead possibly several hours when the lifeless body was discovered by the mother about 7 o'clock.

The infant had been ill a short time before with bronchitis, and it is thought that he developed pneumonia and died within a few hours.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon and burial was in the Bowen Cemetery, near the home.

Small Amount Of Sock Wool Is Available Here

A small amount of sock wool is available at the Red Cross headquarters. Anyone desiring to knit socks is urged to call for the wool at once.

Burlap

Farmers will have to turn more to bulk handling of grain since two-thirds of available burlap has been turned over for use by the armed forces, and grain bags will be difficult to get.

Announced Tire Sale Causes Excitement In Robersonville

(Robersonville Herald)

"Through a special permit from the State Rationing Board in Raleigh I will sell all tires and tubes in my station and warehouse on February 29th and 30th," Mr. W. B. Rogerson, proprietor of the Robersonville Oil Company, advised his friends and intimate customers this week.

Of course there are only 28 days in February, but Wiley B. enjoyed the practical joke for several hours before he was checked on when some of his friends attempted to mark the sale dates on their calendars.

Claude Smith, who lives near here gave a check for a set of tires to be delivered during the sale. Jim Gray came along within a few minutes and offered him a profit of $11.00 on the tires. Sherwood Roberson, as usual unselfish, ran across the street and notified all his employees to make plans to stock up during the sale. "If you haven't got the money just let me know," Sherwood stated.

These are not the only people who had to spit out the cork and sinker. Thousands of dollars worth of tires were sold in Robersonville and a number were even sold in Williams-

War Traffic School For Local Officers

Edward Scheidt, special agent in charge of the Charlotte office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced today that invitations have been extended to law enforcement officials in Martin County to attend a War Traffic School which will be held at Chapel Hill March 2-7.

This school is one of a series of six-day traffic schools being conducted by the FBI in 120 strategically located cities throughout the country. The schools can be attended by heads of law enforcement organizations and traffic departments; traffic officers, officers who may assist or be in charge of convoy work, instructors of local police training schools, police-traffic accident investigators, and auxiliary police who have already entered on duty.

Courses of instruction will be given by FBI experts assisted by traffic specialists whose services have been secured by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These specialists have made a special study of war traffic problems and national policies affecting traffic control, including recommendations of the War Department. The schools have the approval of the Office of Civilian Defense and traffic authorities and organizations throughout the country. The program of training is an adjunct of the FBI Civilian Defense Courses for Police recently held by the FBI and constitutes a part of the FBI-Law Enforcement Officers' Mobilization Plan for National Defense.

Incomplete Report Shows Farmers Lag In The War Effort

As for victory gardens, quite a few farmers are planning to provide for their immediate needs, but in many instances the victory garden program will be crowded at the end of the cash crops and to get attention on Saturday afternoons.

A detailed report on the new War Production program is being tabulated in the office of the farm agent and the findings will be made public shortly.

Chicks

American farmers report an intention to buy 12 per cent more baby chicks this year than in 1941, but may purchase more or less depending on feed and egg prices during the hatching season.

Due to the greatly increased war requirements, 1941 United States consumption of the four major textile fibers—cotton, wool, rayon and silk—broke all previous records.

cane sugar supply, curtailed use of critical materials in manufacture of all musical instruments, and restricted use of natural gas.
