BAILEY-HOLLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Holliday announce the marriage of their daughter, Sarah Griffin, to First Lieutenant Leslie Wilmer Bailey on Sunday, March 1, 1942, in Browns Mills, N. J.

Mrs. Bailey attended Williamston High School and Milligan College, Tennessee.

For her wedding she wore a yellow plaid imported virgin wool suit with yellow blouse and luggage accessories. Her corsage was of yellow daffodils, lily of the valley and fern. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Earlyn Holliday, who was attired in a blue suit with brown accessories.

Lieut. Bailey is the son of Mrs. Charles D. Bailey, and the late Mr. Bailey, of Olinger, Va. Upon graduation from high school he spent three years in the Philippine Islands, then attended the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., for four years, where he received his commission in the regular army as second lieutenant. Recently he has been promoted to first lieutenant and is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Bailey was entertained by the officers of Co. H, 135th Infantry, Fort Dix, at a lovely dinner. She was presented a beautiful bouquet of roses, carnations, snapdragons, daffodils and fern.

At present, Lieut. and Mrs. Bailey are making their home at 45 Garden Street, Mt. Holly, N. J.
