PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer is engaged in an educational program to protect the health of the public against cancer; and

Whereas, cancer is the second greatest cause of death in these United States, taking an annual toll of more than 158,000 lives; and

Whereas, from one-half to two-thirds of these deaths could be prevented; and

Whereas, it is essential that the public learn the symptoms of cancer, and be aware of the necessity for early diagnosis and prompt treatment as a means to this end; now

Therefore, I, J. L. Hassell, as Mayor of Williamston, designate the month of April as Cancer Control Month,

And, recommend that all men and women secure and read the literature offered by the Women's Field Army, and enlist in its ranks.

J. L. Hassell, Mayor.

Happenings In The Farm Life School

The pre-school clinic for all school children who will enter the first grade at the opening of school in the fall will meet in the Farm Life school on Friday, April 17th. No child who will be six years old after October 1, 1942, will be admitted. The parents are urged to have their children present on the appointed date.

The last meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Tuesday evening, April 15th, at 8:30 o'clock. It is hoped that every parent in the district will be able to attend this last meeting.

The students in the lower grades enjoyed egg hunts near the school on Monday afternoon.

As a climax to our study of deserts in the fourth grade, a play written by the pupils and Mrs. Manning was given Friday afternoon.

The play, "Adi and Hamda in the Desert," showed the life of desert people on the caravan, at school, at their work, in their tents, and then their way of dressing. Songs that were used were "The Desert" and "The Desert Prayer." The following characters took part:

Hamda, daughter of the Sheik, Earline Coltrain; Adi, son of the Sheik, Pinky Manning; Sheik, leader of the band, George Hardison; Nira, wife of the Sheik, Janice Hardison; Selim, slave, David Lilley; Ambar, teacher, James C. Lilley; Fahad, camel tender, Herman Hopkins; Nazar, servant, Leona Hardison; Strangers, Nooky Getsinger and N. R. Peele; Trader, Frances Hardison. Other men and women on the caravan were, Russell Peele, Elvin Lilley, Shirley Corey, Daisy Griffin, Bessie Manning, Carrie Wiggins and Rachel Simpson.

After the program, Leona Hardison invited the visitors into the 4th grade room. Card tables were decorated with green, yellow and brown crepe paper with a small palm tree in the center of each. Green paper hats, napkins and cups were made and decorated by the children. Eight games of bingo were played and the prizes were awarded to Mesdames Hoyt Lilley, Heber Peele, Perlie Lilley, Elmer Whitehurst, Asa Hardison and David Lilley, Russell Peele and James C. Lilley.

Refreshments of punch and date bars were served by the pupils.

The following visitors were present: Mesdames P. E. Getsinger, Herbert Manning, Asa Hardison, Perlie Lilley, B. T. Hardison, Arthur Simpson, H. E. Hardison, Heber Peele, Leonard Coltrain, Ira Hardison, Ben Manning, Howard Hopkins, Hoyt Lilley, Sherrod Corey, Arthur Corey, Elmer Whitehurst, Dennis Hardy, Miss Callie Robertson, little Shirley Ann Hardy, Betty Lou Hardison, Loretta Simpson, Dallas Coltrain and Jeffrey Corey.

We have collected and sold 447 pounds of paper for $1.60. With this money we are going to buy defense stamps.
