Mrs. Scott Gwms Town of Star. RALEIGH, March 26.—The Supreme Court decides the interesting case of Mrs. Scott vs. Ingram, involving the title to the whole town of Star, in Mont-gomery county. Mrs. Scott, a married woman, living in South Carolina, sold the land on which the town now stands for a 4rifle, it seems. The town was built, and it is said the land is now worth $70,000 or thereabouts. The Supreme Court decides in favor of Mrs. Scott and so the property owners lose it.

leg." The benevolent-looking old gentle-man replied, as he hurned away: "My dear friend, I am very sorry but I have not seen anything of it." Senator Marous A. Hanna has written a letter stating that he is in no sense a candidate for the presidency in 1904, and requesting his friends to discourage any movement to that end.

Some men wake up and find them-selves famous, while lots of others stay up all night and never even get a glimpse of fame.

Penelope-Mercy! Why did Mabel over marry that young Simkins? He's such a poor excuse of a man! Ann-Well, a poor excuse is better than none.

cow. Gen. Fred Funston is said to have been much chagrined by the fact that, instead of being lionized on his recent visit to Washington, he was almost ig-nored. We hardly expected it from Washington, but such treatment is no worse than he deserved. His capture of Aguinalds was a proceeding which could not have the annotion of those who love openness and fairness and de-spise treachery.—Concord Times. Mrs. Suburbanite: "John, I think we should have burglar alarms in the house, and then if anyone tried to break in they would go off." Mr. Buburbanite: "Yes 'n wake the buby."
