RECORD VOTE IS INDICATED

NUMBER OF BALLOTS CAST UP
NOON AGGREGATES REGIS-TRATION FIFTY PER CENT IN SOME INSTANCES

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 7.—The flood of ballots which will sweep either Hughes or Wilson into the Presidency began rising early today.

While publicly both Republicans and Democrats declare their entire confidence in the result, privately leaders of both parties are very much at sea.

No previous election has given so little real indication of which way the straws blow. The "silent vote" is more silent than ever. There have been a half dozen "trends" of public sentiment during the campaign. Both are claiming the benefit of these.

The most unusual eleventh hour development in betting has materialized. Wall street, priding itself on always being able to pick the winner, placed its odds at midnight on candidate Hughes, but this morning the betting opened at almost even money. If odds slightly favor Hughes here, this is offset by the fact the situation is reversed in the middle western states, where Wilson is reported the favorite.

The American people may expect the first complete returns from two or three small hamlets in Massachusetts, which have won renown as being the first mentioned in a half dozen elections. New York State returns commence shortly after the polls close in Buffalo at five o'clock. Clear weather prevails in practically all sections.

RECORD BREAKING VOTE INDICATED

America is casting a record vote today for President in the usually heavy run of early balloting in any indication. United Press reports from all sections show vote up to noon heavier than ever before within that period. Many instances are reported in which the aggregate of the votes cast already equals half of registered voters. Ideal weather is aiding in bringing out the balloters.

In the "pivotal states" of New York, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio the morning's balloting showed the "silent vote," on whose verdict depends the election, speaking very loudly.

HUGHES DRAWS FIRST BLOOD

New Ashford, Massachusetts, with a voting population of twenty-five, gained the proud distinction of making the first complete return. The polls closed at ten o'clock and the count showed 16 for Hughes against 7 for Wilson, with two not voting.

SUFFRAGE WORKERS PLAN BIG ELECTION PARTY

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 7.—Help Woman's Suffrage, have the social time of your young or old life and get the election returns simultaneously in the city. The New York State Woman's Suffrage Party asks folks to attend its ball here tonight.

General election returns are every thing, but, at the ball tonight they will be of secondary interest so far as the suffragists are concerned. The workers will have their eyes on the returns from South Dakota, West Virginia and Montana. In the two first mentioned suffrage is an issue and all suffragists are waiting for the moment to give a regular commanche war whoop if they carry. In Montana Miss Jeanette Rankin is running for Congress. She is making her race with several million women watching anxiously.

The invitations to dance emphasize that lively one-stepping will be all the go.

ACTIVE FIGHTING ON MOST FRONTS

NO DECISIVE ENGAGEMENT OR SPECTACULAR GAINS HOW-
EVER MADE BY EITHER SIDE
LAST NIGHT

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 7.—Recent German losses in the Jull valley in Roumania exceed 30,000 according to a wire less from Bucharest received here this morning.

Continued activity on practically all fronts has marked the last twenty four hours. At some points the fighting has been severe.

In most cases the allies appear to be developing strong offensives. In Pierrestavst wood last night, the French continued combing out the Germans who had not been expelled in the first rushes. Heavy artillery kept up during the night on the Somme front, but there was no infantry action.

General Haig says that the British position south of Bapaume, about Butt De Warioncourt, was slightly improved during the night.

British Sub Scores Hits

(By United Press)

Further reports of the British submarine operating off the Danish coast claim that the submarine scored two hits against German dreadnaughts, the admiralty reports. It was reported yesterday that a dreadnaught was torpedoed.

VOTE ON $10,000,000 PARK BOND ISSUE

(By United Press)

Albany, N. Y. Nov. 7.—Electors of New York will decide today whether the state will issue $10,000,000 in bonds, the proceeds to be used in enlarging and beautifying state parks. The great objects, according to a booklet issued by the State Parks Committee, are: increase of rainfall and equalization of temperature; conservation of water supply; preservation of timber and the maintenance of recreation grounds for the citizens of the state.

The parks specified are the Adirondack, Catskill and Interstate.

DAUGHTERS CONFEDERACY OPEN CONVENTION

(By United Press)

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 7.—When the United Daughters of the Confederacy open their general convention tonight, President-General Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer will deliver the chief address. Business sessions will start tomorrow. Officers will be elected Thursday. No opposition has developed against Mrs. Odenheimer or any others of the chief officers.

Chief of the social events is a ball to be held tomorrow night, at which pages, appointed by the president of the Daughters to represent every state will be honored. The convention adjourns Saturday.

MARRIED HERE MONDAY

Demetrius Condoylamus and Miss Hattie L. Burnett were married Monday by Rev. I. N. Loftin at his residence on Pennsylvania Avenue.

SCHOOLS OPEN NOV. 13th

The schools of Pasquotank county which have not yet begun the fall term's work will open November 13th.

Wilson and Hughes do not agree as to politics but both agree on Weeks & Sawyer's, Where the Best Clothes Come From.

A Request for Full Co-operation

The canvassing committee for the entertainment of delegates to the State Baptist Convention held their first meeting last night. The Committee found that with the partial canvass of the city made they had homes for 336 delegates. They are sure they will have to have fully twice that many homes. The church has asked the full and complete co-operation of all the churches and people of the town in the entertainment of the delegates. Every pastor in the city was invited to make an announcement and to ask for the co-operation of all the people from the various pulpits the last Sunday in October. The people as a rule are responding very cordially. The pastor and the church wish in this way to extend hearty appreciation to all who are taking delegates into their homes. The coming of this throng of men from all parts of North Carolina and the South means much to our city. They will represent two hundred and seventy six thousand white Baptists, and over twenty three hundred local churches. The committee must get not less than eight hundred homes for the delegates.

Therefore the church invites full and cordial co-operation of all people in the entertainment of those who will come among us. All are requested to take as many as they can, for no one of whatever faith or church can think of this work as a local church matter. The coming of these guests to our city will touch our whole life and the entertainment will reflect honor or other wise on the whole city.

Therefore we again ask the full co-operation of all the people.

Cordially,
Blackwell Memorial Baptist church.

Hughes Vote Unlucky 13

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 7.—Hughes voted this morning at seven o'clock casting ballot number 13.

WOULD ABOLISH GLASS MILK BOTTLE

(By United Press)

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—The death knell of the glass milk bottle in Pennsylvania has been sounded. Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the state commissioner of health, says that "it will have to give way in the near future to the destructible bottle that will never be used a second time."

This is taken to mean that within a few weeks the Health department advisory board will rule that the glass milk bottle must go.

Such rulings have all the effect of statute law.

Commissioner Dixon doesn't like the danger of infection through the promiscuous distribution and gathering of bottles, no matter how cleanly the dairy or creamery may be.

GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Evelyn Pritchard entertained a number of her friends on Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Pritchard on North Road street in honor of her fourth anniversary.

After various games had been played the little folks were ushered into the dining room where dainty refreshments were served by the mother of the hostess.

Those enjoying Miss Pritchard's hospitality were: Lucile Gregory, Edna Mae Cox, Maxine Shephard, Evelyn Midgett, Gussie Armstrong, Dorothy and Mabel Chappelle, Halle and Hazel Silverthorn, Martha Berry, Ruth Overman, Mary Byrd Saunders, Elizabeth Carter, Isabelle Munden, Mary Frances Williams, Louise Adams, E. Hins Daniels, Norman Gregory, Cooper McCoy, Robert Keats, Moody Haskett, Braxton Simpson, Keith Saunders-Saunders, Allen Bell.

Democrats and Republicans concede that Manhattan shirts are the best made. They are sold exclusively by Weeks & Sawyer, Where the Best Clothes Come From.

REVIVAL SERVES TONIGHT

Mr. R. D. Garland will preach at the First Baptist church tonight at 7:30 o'clock, and the public is extended a cordial invitation to be present.

The series of meetings now in progress at his church have been attended by good crowds and much interest has been manifested in the work being done. Mr. Garland preaches strong sermons and is heard with the closest attention.

D. H. Thrift of Camden was in the city today.

Lanao Flew U. S. Ensign

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 7.—Captain Henry Mailland, the only American aboard the steamer Lanao, sunk by a German submarine on October 28th, declares that the ship was under Philippine registration and flew the American ensign when she was scuttled, after the crew had been removed.

TENER ADMITS WEAKNESS OF NATIONAL LEAGUE

By HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 7.—The weakness of the National League brand of baseball as compared with the snappy dished out by the American League, pointed out by the United Press in the last World Series, was admitted today by Governor John K. Tener President of the National League.

It isn't Wilbert Robinson who is so much to blame for the loss of the World Series, according to Gov. Tener, but is due to the fact that the players who made up the National League club were wholly unable to do the things which might have won the games. It would have been useless, Tener contends, for Robinson to follow tactics other than the ones he did follow.

The fielding, Governor Tener agrees, was something awful and the Brooklyn club never has a chance against such a grand organization as the Red Sox.

Tener, however, is extremely optimistic and he believes that before the time comes for another world series his league will be strengthened to such an extent that it will give its rival opposition of the sternest sort. Work is now being done he declares, which will give the National League undoubted strength.

The National League prexy agreed that there were several clubs in the National League at the close of the last playing season which would have given the world series fans a better run for their money than did the Dodgers. He didn't name these clubs, but it was evident he does not believe the best club in the National League won the pennant.

CELEBRATES NINTH BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Ethel Lee McCoy was honored yesterday afternoon at a party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCoy on Walnut Street, the occasion being her ninth birthday. The table was prettily decorated with a centerpiece of roses and a birthday cake. The guests present were: Misses Edna Mae Cox, Margaret Overman, Ruth Overman, Estelle Silverthorn, Edna Silverthorn, Nelle Davis, Dorothy Chappell, Mabel Chappell, Martha Sheperd, Margaret Richardson, and Gladys Richardson.

WILL TEACH PREPAREDNESS

BUT NOT AGGRESSIVENESS
SAYS BUFFALO BILL IN BIG
WILD WEST SHOW

Owing to the extreme military character of the "Preparedness" spectacle which will be the big feature of the Buffalo Bill (himself) 101 Ranch shows when they exhibit in Elizabeth City, Friday, November, 10th, a report has gained currency that the display is an open and avowed incentive to war. That this is far from the truth is declared by Col. Wm. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), who is in the saddle again this year and takes a prominent part in the exhilarating spectacle.

"The idea of the spectacle, 'preparedness,' Col. Cody told a New York newspaper writer, 'is not to stir up warlike feelings among our American people or to so glorify war as to compel aggression against any other nation. While the panoply and picturesqueness of the military life is shown, and a successful effort has been made to arouse enthusiasm by the realism of the display, the main purpose, apart from the effort to give the American people a splendid picture of our army and what it may become, is to create patriotism and to open the eyes of the American people to the urgent need and necessity for preparedness against a possible foe. The spectacle does not preach aggression, but does preach preparedness with all the power of its spectacular force. It is an object lesson that the government is also desirous of conveying to the people of the United States, and it is for this reason that we have been able to present a military spectacle in which the participants, for the most part, are actually soldiers from the regular army. This, in itself, is such an innovation as to place upon the display the stamp of absolute genuineness.'

In the great "Preparedness" spectacle, it is announced, the spectator is given a first hand view of the United States army at close range. There are infantry drills, cavalry charges and artillery engagements. There is a sham battle, with all the modern instruments of destruction in mimic action. There is the work of the Red Cross and the commissary department, the mule train, the mountain guns and all the other essentials of an army in being. Never before, it is said, have Uncle Sam's defenders been so realistically and strenuously visualized within the limits of an exhibition enclosure.

Incidentally, there is a graphic reproduction of many scenes from the life of the old borderland, when Uncle Sam's cavalry was principally engaged in rounding up and fighting wild hostiles, and scores of Indians led by Chief Flying Hawk, with many old scouts, plainmen, cowboys and other notables of the plains and mountain country, participate in the strenuous and picturesque display. All the celebrities with the show will be seen in the free street parade, which takes place at 10:30 on the morning of the exhibition day. A military section will be one of the features of the street display. The U. S. army recruiting tent will be open all day.

TO AUDIT ACCOUNTS

C. E. Thompson, J. B. Leigh and J. C. Spence have been appointed by the County Commissioners to audit the accounts of the county officers. The new salary system goes into effect on the first Monday in December. This does not include the clerk, however.

Mrs. J. H. Chambliss left today for Franklin, Virginia, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Adams on Cypress street.

WILSON MOTORS TO THE POLLS

VOTED AT PRINCETON AT NINE O'CLOCK SUPREME CONFIDENT OF DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

(By United Press)

Shadow Lawn, Nov. 7.—President Wilson rose at seven o'clock this morning, breakfasted, motored to Princeton and voted. He was the fiftieth voter to cast his ballot.

It required sixteen men, three automobiles, four hours and fifty-four gallons of gasoline to deliver the President's single vote at Princeton.

The President's escort consisted of his body guard, the secret service retinue and a corps of newspaper men who raced to the polls and arrived at nine o'clock.

A big crowd cheered the President's arrival and the Princeton students were out en masse to give him an ovation. The President and his entire official family appeared supremely confident of the result.

Returning to Shadow Lawn this afternoon, the President expects to while away the time at golf. Tonight he will receive the returns by the private wire to Shadow Lawn, and will remain up until the decision of the American electorate is indicated.

BIG LOCAL VOTE ALSO INDICATED

The balloting up to the end of the noon hour today indicated that the vote in this election would be a heavy one.

In the four wards of the city at that time over six hundred votes had been cast, which is well over fifty per cent of the total registration in the town.

Phone calls to the various precincts before this paper went to press reported the following vote in the various wards:

First Ward	175
Second Ward	140
Third Ward	160
Fourth Ward	151

The number of votes cast in the primary in the race for sheriff was as follows:

First Ward	205
Second Ward	248
Third Ward	123
Fourth Ward	144

RUN TO FIRE NOT TO CHURCH

(By United Press)

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Prohibition North Dakota is on record today as being naughty North Dakota. It doesn't seem to be worrying Dakotians either. Judge J. A. Coffey, Jamestown, at the state Presbyterian synod openly asserted that if the church bell and fire bell rang at the same time, North Dakotians would go to the fire. Movie shows are not equipped with bells in Dakota either.

TRIFLE ROUGH ON THE HOME FOLKS

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Nov. 7.—"And so you are going to have a new union depot in St. Paul to replace the one condemned by the state fire marshal, well, when will it be completed? asked Matt O'Gallagher of Obijimway, Mich. of a yawning hotel porter here.

"In Octobre" was the sighed reply.

"You mean Octobre, there isn't any such month as Octobre."

"I know, that's when the building will be ready," said the yawner.

J. W. Sellg returned today from Suffolk by auto.

T. E. Palmer of Weeksville was in the city today.
