DEMPSEY WON ON POINTS IN 15TH

But Challenger Put Up Good Fight and Was Not Knocked Off His Feet Once During the Contest.

Shelby, Montana, July 4.—In a 15-round battle in which neither fighter was knocked off his feet once and which was fought on almost even terms for 12 rounds, Jack Dempsey retained the heavyweight title challenged by Tom Gibbons by a decision on points. The fight by rounds follows:

Fourth—Dempsey hooked left to stomach and punched Tom's head with rights and lefts as they clinched. Gibbons backed to the corner, avoiding two lefts. Dempsey landed body punches in a clinch and pounded the challenger on the back of the head. Gibbons landed behind the champion's ear. Dempsey retaliating with a right to body. Gibbons hooked left to jaw and right to head as Dempsey punished him severely with short body punches. Dempsey's old wound over the left eye was bleeding again as he went to his corner.

Eighth—Dempsey hooked a left to chin and in a clinch they exchanged punches to head. Gibbons whipped two left to head. Dempsey drove a right to body and left to head, and took a left on the chin. Gibbons again nailed Jack on chin and hooked champion on head with his left. Dempsey brought short rights and left to head in the clinch that

The real reason for buying Columbias —they last longer

The largest laboratory, devoted to dry cell research, experiments continuously to make them "last longer." Columbia Hot Shot or Columbia Ignitors are "right" for your needs. That's why people have the habit of asking for Columbias.

Columbia Dry Batteries for all purposes are sold by hardware and general stores, electrical and auto supply shops, garages and implement dealers.
