

THE ADVANCE

PEELE & PEELE, Publishers HERBERT PEELE, Editor. Member of The Associated Press...

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1923.

Where The Advance Excels.

There are matters in which a small town newspaper outvies a metropolitan service. The following item in a front page box, appeared in last Friday's issue of a New York newspaper:

Happiness and Hooch are synonymous for some folks. One can't escape a feeling of pity for the negro defendant in police court recently who, when upbraided by the Prosecuting Attorney for going on a spree, said:

"That's the only way I can have a little fun." One of the tragedies of life is to observe into what futile paths men turn in their search for happiness.

An attorney for the railroads says that freight has nothing to do with prices, citing the fact that fish sell at the same price in New York as they do at the port in Maine where they are docked when caught.

The answer read plainest in a woman's eyes is the look a small boy sees in his mother's when they are visiting and he is invited to a second helping of icecream and cake.

Astonishing, according to the News and Observer, is the number of North Carolina towns that are building new hotels. Also astonishing, to the traveling men, is the number that aren't.

After all occupation of the Ruhr by the French has hardly involved the spilling of more blood than a general coal strike in the United States.

Frequently one reads in the newspaper a story of a man still living with a broken neck. Generally, however, it is just living and that's all.

It is now impossible to bring back the life of the one leader and the health of the other, but we may still save our trees as memorials to these great men, if we have the foresight and have it quickly.

The Advance is "as near you as your telephone," and is glad to have you call whether you have news or want news.

While other schools are planting Harding memorial oaks in patriotic tribute to the late President, shall we ruthlessly cut down the big oak on the high school grounds as President Harding was cut down in the prime of life and as President Wilson was crippled with his work unfinished?

How Shall We Celebrate? November 2 will be celebrated in the schools of the nation as Arbor Day. But how shall we celebrate it in Elizabeth City if we allow the trees on the school grounds to be cut? It is foolish to teach children to plant trees without teaching them to conserve those already planted.

The Advance is "as near you as your telephone," and is glad to have you call whether you have news or want news.

PAWNBROKERS TO DIGNIFY BUSINESS

Erect Guild Building Among Other Famous Guilds in City of London

London, Oct. 18.—London pawnbrokers are going up in the world. The latest example of this is the erection of an eighteenth century guild buildings among the many other famous guilds of London.

The pawnbrokers will moreover in the future cooperate on a plan similar to the old guilds and will live up to the reputation of the guilds, by having elaborate annual dinners in observance of all the holidays peculiar to their trade.

The trade in London has an ancient record going back to the 13th century when the Lombard merchants were great money-lenders and played the chief part in the exchanges and money brokerage shops of those days.

The pre-eminence of the Medici family at Florence in commercial and financial matters caused the London merchants to adopt part of the arms of this house as a trade sign, from which comes the familiar three golden balls.

The salaries and expenses for all the vaccinating parties amount to $65,200 annually. Of 419,210 vaccinations made up to July 31, 153,593 were positives.

CHINESE OUTNUMBER OTHER IMMIGRANTS

Manilla, Sept. 18.—The Philippine Islands will not be disturbed with an immigration problem for some years to come if the present rate of immigration is continued. A total of less than 4,000 immigrants came to the islands during the first six months of the present year, according to reports obtained from the customs service.

Chinese comprised the bulk of immigrants, 3,361 out of a total of 3,820 of those seeking permanent residence in the islands being Chinese. Of these 1,185 were minors under 14 years of age.

Japanese subjects made a poor second with a total of 248, English 60, Spanish 57, Indians 22, Germans 20; all other nationalities made up only 52.

D'Annunzio Tells His Life History

Italian's Autobiography Which Is Said to Be Audacious Even for Today. Rome, Oct. 18.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, poet, statesman and soldier, has leased from the Italian government the Villa Falconieri, and will relinquish his present residence on Lake Garda. He promises to publish shortly two or three books, one of which, "About Me and Myself," is said to be autobiographical, audacious and out-spoken, even for these unreticent days.

The Villa Falconieri is one of the oldest and most romantic of the lovely 17th century villas which were laid out with so much taste and charm by the luxury-loving princes of the Church as their summer residences near Rome. It was acquired twelve years ago by the then emperor of Germany, who had it fitted up as a resting-place for German artists, literary men and officers wishing to winter in Rome.

Like all these country houses of the Renaissance, the grounds of the Villa Falconieri are full of stately, beautiful trees, and formal, exquisite fountains and waterfalls. There is also a romantic lake, surrounded by cypresses, which is said to be haunted by the wraith of a water-nymph, or perhaps by that of a young girl of more modern days whose body, like that of another Ophelia, was found floating there, crowned and covered with flowers.

Says Lightning Can Be Avoided

Raleigh, Oct. 18. — "Lightning, which used to be classed as a providential cause of fires, should now be considered as an avoidable cause," according to Stacey W. Wade, commissioner of the State Department of Insurance. Not a single building equipped with lightning rods has ever been reported destroyed by lightning to the Insurance Department, Mr. Wade declares.

Losses caused by lightning fires in North Carolina during April, May, June, July August and September totaled $108,850, according to official records of the Insurance Department, the losses divided as follows: April, two fires, loss $3,000; May, three fires, loss $39,700; June, five fires, loss $17,800; July, 11 fires, loss $11,000; August, eight fires, loss $11,000; September, seven fires, loss $24,850.

It is probable that there will not be any fires caused by lightning in October, says Mr. Wade. There have been no reports made to the Insurance Department of forest fires caused by lightning.
